

R. J. Payne Esq

Church of England
YOUNG MEN'S SOCIETY
Charitable Relief Fund.

THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

Let us not be weary in well doing; for in due season we shall reap if we faint not. As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith."—GAL. vi. 9, 10.

The Committee of the Church of England Young Men's Society, to whom is entrusted the Charitable Relief Fund, beg to submit to the Subscribers an account of the manner in which it has been dispensed during the past year. The statements appended will shew a summary of what has been done, and, it is hoped, be sufficiently satisfactory to induce the patrons of the Charity to renew, if not to increase, their contributions, and to lead others who may not hitherto have supported it, to become subscribers. Although the Committee meet, as may be supposed, with many discouraging features in the work of dispensing this charity, and