

The House was adjourned during pleasure.
After some time the House was resumed.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons by their Clerk in the following words:—

HOUSE OF COMMONS,
FRIDAY, 4th March, 1892.

Resolved, That a Message be sent to the Senate informing their Honours that this House hath agreed to their Address to Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, of condolence on the untimely death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, by filling up the blank with the words "House of Commons."

Ordered, That the Clerk of the House do carry the said Message to the Senate.

Attest,
J. G. BOURINOT,
Clerk of the Commons.

A Message was brought from the House of Commons by their Clerk in the following words:—

HOUSE OF COMMONS,
FRIDAY, 4th March, 1892.

Resolved, That a Message be sent to the Senate informing their Honours that this House has passed the accompanying Address to His Excellency the Governor General, praying that His Excellency will be pleased to transmit the Joint Address of both Houses to Her Most Gracious Majesty, of condolence on the untimely death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, in such manner as His Excellency may seem fit, in order that the same may be placed at the foot of the Throne.

Ordered, That the Clerk of the House do carry the said Message to the Senate.

Attest,
J. G. BOURINOT,
Clerk of the Commons.

The said Address to His Excellency the Governor General was then read by the Clerk, as follows:—

To HIS EXCELLENCY the Right Honourable Sir FREDERICK ARTHUR STANLEY, Baron Stanley of Preston, in the County of Lancaster, in the Peerage of Great Britain, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor General of Canada and Vice-Admiral of the same.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY :

We, the dutiful and loyal subjects of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen, the Commons of Canada, in Parliament assembled, beg leave to approach Your Excellency with our respectful request that Your Excellency will be pleased to transmit our Joint Address to Her Majesty, of condolence on the untimely death of His Royal Highness Prince Albert Victor, Duke of Clarence and Avondale, in such manner as to Your Excellency may seem fit, in order that the same may be laid at the foot of the Throne.

Speaker of the Senate.

THE SENATE,

P. WHITE,
Speaker of the House of Commons.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,
FRIDAY, 4th March, 1892.
