Editor's Talk

NOT many numbers of this journal have contained three as important articles as those by Professor Chant, Mr. Justice Longley and Mr. Wallace Nesbitt. As professor of astrophysics, Dr. Chant has become a national figure in educational circles. Mr. Justice Longley, as publicist and litterateur, is well known to every student of public affairs from Halifax, where he lives, to Victoria. Mr. Nesbitt, the only man who ever left the Supreme Court bench to resume private practise, is also a man with a reputation which is more than national.

Next week's issue will be devoted largely to a review of the dramatic and musical season. This is our first attempt to do this nationally, but we hope to make it a regular yearly event. There will also be a short story by Charles G. D. Roberts, with an illustration by Arthur Heming, and several other attractive features.
