Talkin' 'Bout...

by Iggy Travolta

Raging Records will be distributing The Imagineers' recently unveiled cassette release... Psycho-singer Trace Willin opens for Toronto sax player John Oswald at the Yardbird November 14 as part of the Boreal Electro-acoustic Music Society's inaugural celebrations... Ex-Edmonite Alan Boyd apparently fit in really swell with Montrealers The Gruesomes during a recent stopover... Contrary to popular belief, the latest FM88 fund drive will not be referred to as MoochMusic... Cadillac of Worms, J. Jonah Jamesons, and Rex Morgan B.C. have been nominated for ARIA Awards... Biting comment from Bloodsucking Freaks' voxmanKelly Simpson: "My tits" are bigger than Kerri Anderson's!"... Speaking of the Divine Miss A, she's apparently ditched her band for a waitressing career in L.A. and was definitely not involved with the Elvis entourage reported here last month... Jane Hawley is back from Toronto after a stint with Handsome Ned's band and tons of press coverage... Nowhere Blossoms scored #15 on CKLN Toronto's charts... Painted Pony is off to the glue factory after Terry Cox jumped onto the carnival circuit... Former This Fear bassist Brian Repka was seen hauling gear for Sons of Freedom... Chi Pig recently turned 26, presumably under the strains of "He's Not Getting Older He's Getting Bitter."

FM88 Drives for 500

by Christine Chomiak

FM88-CJSR's annual fundrive is upon us yet again this year from November 1st to 11th, and here are a few reasons why you should dial and donate:

- 1. So you can pick us up in the west end
- 2. So you can pick us up in the east end
- 3. So you can pick us up on the north side
- 4. So you can pick us up in Mill Woods5. So you can pick us up in Sherwood Park
- 6. So you can pick us up in St. Albert
- 7. So when you're out driving and you're listening to CJSR on your car stereo, you don't lose the station everytime you go around a corner.

8. So you no longer need an eight-foot antenna arranged in various bizarre positions just to get a bit of reception that only last until a plane flies overhead.

Yes, this year is The Drive for 500, not 500 dollars but 500 watts! And FM88 is looking for your support, as we need a new transmitter — one that transmits 500 watts (like I said)! Our current one only puts out a paltry 45.5 watts. So you see, you're actually helping yourself when you donate to CJSR. You will actually be able to listen to your favourite show, let's say you're in your car while driving out to Namao (or Leduc, depending on your sense of direction).

You may be asking youself now, "By gosh, I most certainly want to support Edmonton's only listener supported, volunteer run radio station but how much is a transmitter? All, that much? I really don't have that much to give!!!"

Well, a new transmitter costs $35,000, but the almighty volunteers here at FM88 have already raised two-thirds of the cost. All we are asking for is $15,000 from you, our supporters. And don't worry, if your budget only allows you to donate a few dollars, we will be more than willing to accept it. Every dollar adds up in the end, and you'll be helping yourself to receive the finest radio Edmonton has to offer (you better believe it, Bub!).

Need a tax receipt? We have a bunch o'tax receipts to give you if you flash us some green. Want to become a Friend of CJSR? With a donation of $20 or more, you become a Friend which entitles you to a bunch of neato stuff (like discounts on t-shirts, gigs, MObile Sound, etc, etc). Your name also gets entered in a draw to win munga-big prizes.

Now, you may be asking, "How the heck do I donate?"

Penetrating the radio barrier

Well, phone 492-CJSR, 492-

That's all I really have to say about The Drive for 500. Support your radio station — Dial and Donate 492-CJSR, and buck up little campers, help us help you by getting a new transmitter. 492-CJSR-492

PS: There will be an opening bash October 31, at the New York, New York, featuring the reggae sounds of Reality, and a closing bash on November 10, at Bronx, featuring lots of cool local bands, plus entertainment nightly at Cafe on White. Be there bubs and bubettes!
