Equalitarian Environmental Ejaculations

by John Doherty

Visions of vitrous vibrating votarists
 Freely facing fresh fall
 Whilst predatory pupils prey its' call
 And summer's saturated sanctuary
 Eroding erstwhile evanescent effigies of education.
 Garrulous girls greedily gasping gaspers
 Pensive pupils preserving pernicious permutations
 During draoing dogmatic drudgery
 My martyrdom manifested multifariously menopausic
 Neither nonsense nor noumenal notions needing niche
 But burdensome's baptism bovine nitch
 So solitude sardonically snub Socinian's solution
 Write on! Write on! NOW LET'S END POLUTION!

P. Q. Student Assoc. calls for support

STE. FOY, Que, (CUP) - the newly-formed Association National des Etudiants de Quebec (ANEQ) has called upon all "popular-based democratic organizations" to send a message of support to the association's upcoming founding congress.

Scheduled for March 22 in Quebec City, ANEQ's founding conference will be "a historic occasion that marks the rebirth of the student movement in Quebec," says general-secretary Pierre LaRoche.

LaRoche said Quebec students have been politically weak and unorganized for the past six years, and unable to fight against "the anti-student policies" of the government.

ANEQ will not only benefit students, he said, but its founding "is an historic moment for the people of Quebec and Canada because students will now be able to play an effective part in supporting other popular and democratic groups already organized in our society."

Telegrams and messages of support will be read at the founding congress, and should be address to: ANEQ, 2336 Chemin Ste. Foy, Ste. Foy, P.Q.
