

on that important subject: your future, which interests me greatly, through from a very disinterested point of view.
If this, you are sure, are you not?

When I meet a man of ability, energetic, steady, fast and intellectual,
I feel as if I could do my utmost to help him in any way. My every does not amount to much, but, still, it is something to think that one can watch a man's career and tell him what one thinks of his efforts and that he should never get discouraged.

I am glad you do not think of entering the Ontario Parliament. See a brighter and a higher sphere for you in other ways. But when will that be? Should you not 6825

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 7

PUBLIC ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA