

17746

The following hours will have brought, and how much more must inevitably follow. I should like to read whatever you write or say, and hope you will send me copies of any thing that appears in print, believing that in all your work I have the honest interest and sympathy.

This letter will reach you just about the Easter season, one of the times that words

W.L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 19

PUBLIC ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA