

collected in the last seized measured by him, and if it were necessary a salary besides for three months.

2^d. Even supposing that the were entitled to the charge made by him of $150 per diem, there are several items in the account, such as on the 23rd July $10⁰⁰, the 17th October $15⁰⁰, of which no details whatever are given, and this of itself would be an objection to the account being paid in its present shape.

Yours obedient servant
