

- Quebec, 200; returns to England, 101; transactions at Quebec, 200; wish of French Canadians to retain him as governor, 101.
- Murray, John, charges against, 186; correspondence with the Colonial Office, 186; dispute with Despard, 186.
- Muré road, 243.
- Musgrave, Sir Anthony, correspondence with the Colonial Office, 59-60.
- Myers, Lieut.-Col., letters of, 76.
- Nantucket, emigration to N. S., 177; possibility of its separation from Massachusetts, 177.
- Napier, Gen., 196.
- Nass River, discovery of gold on, 61.
- Natches Indians, warfare with the French in Louisiana, 242.
- Naval matters, appropriation of naval property, 29; naval cadetships, 51; naval establishment, 118, 119, 120; naval establishments, transfer in the Canadas to the Ordnance department, 15, 25; plans for a naval force in the St. Lawrence and on the Lakes, 17; reservation of naval timber, 20, 29.
- Naval officer, abolishment of, 22, 47; emoluments of, 54; powers over criminals on the Canadian coast of Labrador, 40; returns of, 114.
- Naval stores, production of, 216, 221, 222, 223, 224, 225, 226, 232, 233, 234, 247.
- Navigation, 70; colonial, imperial legislation on, 32; proposed establishment of a provincial school of, 65; school of, 34.
- Navigation laws, 193; application to inland waters, 37; Canadian representations on, 33; changes in, 33; comptroller of, 34; effect upon Canadian trade, 65; improvement of, 103; of the U. S., 42; suggested changes in, 64; suspension of, 32.
- Navy (British), 99; correspondence of officers of, 1778-1783, 207; papers relating to, 79, 80; (Canadian), 98, 103; accounts of, 177-1784, 208; correspondence of officers, 207; lands reserved for naval purposes, 147; memorials relating to, 210; papers relating to, 1776-1845, 79-80, 207; papers on the provincial marine, 73; state of the force at Kingston, 137; (French), lists of officers in New France, 229, 231.
- Navy Island, N. B., utility of, 190.
- Navy Island, U. C., capture of, 157; occupied by rebels and sympathizers, 157; proceedings against armed forces on, 136.
- Needham, Justice, 61.
- Needham, Peter, case of, 43.
- Negroes, circular on, 20; civil status of fugitive slaves, 161; emigration from Ohio to B. N. A., 129; in the Canadas, 136; in N. B., 190; in N. S., 177, 178, 179, 183; in U. C., 159, 160, 161; legal opinions on negro slavery in N. S., 194; plans to induce them to emigrate to the W. Indies, 35, 38, 62, 64, 65, 66, 161; plans regarding, 188; proposals to introduce slaves into New France, 214, 219, 230; proposal to raise a legion of 1,000 coloured men in America for service in the W. Indies, 142; reports of sales of slaves taken in the U. S., 119; sales of, 223; settlement of, at Wilberforce, 25, 155; transport of, to the Illinois country, 226; transportation of, to Sierra Leone, 178.
- Neilson, John, articles in his Gazette, 131; collection of, 6; refuses to accept a seat in the Executive Council, 130; resolutions on the state of the province, 129.
- Nelson, John, 211.
- Nepean, Nicholas, correspondence with the Colonial Office, 186-187.
- Neutrality, alleged breach of, 37; bill on, in the U. S. Congress, 135; maintenance of, by the U. S., 29; preference for, between English and French in America, 246; preservation of, 39, 40.
- Nevis Island, captured by Iberville, 259.
- New Brunswick, application for union with, by inhabitants of the north bank of the Restigouche, 14; arrangements respecting the chief civil authority in, 190; choice of the capital, 188; commissions and instructions to governors of, 1784-1839, 187; constitutional government in, 26; correspondence of the lieutenant-governor with the governor-general, 45-46; correspondence on the financial question, and relations between the legislative and executive authorities, 16; defence of, 46, 183, 189, 190; despatch on the conduct of public affairs, 48; dispute as to control of provisions for the military service, 177; disputes as to the right of succession to the administration of government, 191; estimate of population, 189; Fenian plans against, 71; fires in, 73, 191; government of, 123; instructions on disposal of crown lands, 12; instructions (1812) to maintain as far as possible amicable relations with Americans along the frontier, notwithstanding the war, 190; laws regulating marriage and divorce, 188; military lands in, 91; military papers relating to, 1821-1869, 73; military works in, 92; ordnance lands in, 92; political factions in, 188; relations with the U. S., 189; removal of troops, and recruitment of a provincial corps, 188; spoilation of public timber, 10; state papers of, 187-192; Sydenham's tour of, and recommendations as to government, 140; trade of, 189, 190; trade with South America, 191; trade with the U. S., 188, 190, 191; trade with the W. Indies, 188, 190, 191; union of civil and military authority in one person, 8.
- New Brunswick command, military correspondence, 89.
- New Brunswick Fencibles, enlistment of, 98; papers relating to, 79.
- New Brunswick regiment, returns of, 189.
- Newcastle district, memorial of immigrants in, 150.
- New England, colonial unrest in, 201; exchange of prisoners with Canada, 168; exports provisions to Ile Royale, 245; fisheries of, 1753, 236; French memorandum on its trade and importance, and the