

UNIVERSITY LIBRARIES
ARCHIVES

SECOND YEAR.

I. Re-examination in Reading, Composition, Grammar, Geography and Arithmetic.

II. A satisfactory knowledge of the Chronology, History and Biography of Holy Scripture.

III. The Evidences of Christianity; and such an acquaintance with a system of approved Theology as to comprehend and clearly state the general plan or outline of the author.

IV. A correct knowledge of the Origin and History of Methodism, and particularly of the origin, history and distinguishing principles of the Methodist New Connexion.

V. He shall also be required to submit his plan for pulpit preparation, general study, and pastoral oversight.

TEXT BOOKS:

Any approved Grammar; Paley's Evidences; Cooke's Theology; Wesley's Jour-