

ful training. Churches, quickened to greater activity, must be kept in the path of duty by a judicious mingling of encouragement, stimulus, and caution. Pastors and deacons are called on to "spend and be spent" in a continuous series of laborious endeavour.

May all be prepared for the work that is before them, and prospered abundantly therein!

J. M. CRAMP.
I. E. BILL.

---

Board of Foreign Missions.—Rev. G. Armstrong, Chairman, Rev. Dr. Tupper, Secretary, S. Wheelock, Treasurer, Rev. W. G. Parker, C. Randall, I. E. Bill, S. Robinson, E. B. DeMill, N. Viditoe, A. Stronach, A. Martell, T. McHenry, Esq., A. McL. Seely, Esq., Elisha Harris, Ambrose Dodge.

1. That Nova Scotia shall consist

II. That the following provisions; and generally, means as n

It is earnestly Association convention on God, within

III. That a President, a President, a Secretary, (one a wick), and a members' all of v standing, (in the Convention the Conveniencies that rvention.

IV. That every who shall pay the objects em the Convention three Province tion; any lfe member; s the time, shall lected with a rds any of th e a member of delegate to repr t, two Delegates five pounds, c and shall be at li herein, and one ted; so as no ore than five D th the Convent ionary and l and one Delegates

V. That all mon for the general, after the pay direct, unless