STOCK GOSSIP.

In writing to advertisers please mention the Farmer's Advocate.

We would draw the attention of parties needing a first-class Shorthorn bull to the advertisement of Mr. Struthers, manager of the Bar-ardo Farm, Russell, Manitoba.

J. A. Mullen, of Cyprus River, writes to this office that his poultry have done splendidly during the past season, and that he has something extra in B. B. R. Games. He is desirous of having the Manitoba Poultry Association take immediate steps in arranging for a poultry exhibit at the World's Fair.

Joseph Laurence, of "Reotrouquet Stock Farm," Clearwater, writes us that he has recently purchased a new bull to head his herd of Shorthorns, now numbering over thirty head, as his own bull Warrior 2nd - 15070 - was too closely related to his young heifers. He has secured Mina Chief, a rich roan calved Feb. 1892; bred by Arthur Johnston, Greenwood, Ont., got by that celebrated sire of prize-winners, Indian Chief, out of Mina Victor, etc.
Mr. R. Nicholson, of Sylvan, Ont., says of Mina Chief, that he is one of the best young bulls to be had in Ontario to-day.

NOTES FROM MR. DRUMMOND, MANAGER FOR MAJOR-GEN. WILKINSON, "BIRTLIESIDE FARM," BIRTLIE, MAN.

The stock on the farm are all doing remarkable well. The imported Clyde stallion, Forrest Prince (1186) (507), is looking well, and we anticipate for him a big season next year, as his colts are beginning to show up well. We have six very fine youngsters from him this year, and ten mares in foal to him again. We have made several very good sales lately, namely:—A black four-year-old gelding to Mr. R. Burdette; to Mr.
Collis, of Haven Lake, the imported Shropshire ram Pilgrim Father (4958), and to Mr. Molson, Solagirth, the bull calf out of Banchon, by Barrister 2nd - 12609 - all at very satisfactory prices. The pure-bred cow Kalista dropped a very fine bull calf the other day, by Barrister 2nd, and we have also some other very promising youngsters all doing well. We have a small flock of very fine registered Shrops, and we are using the ram Puritan 27318, by Pilgrim Father (4958), on them this year, and expect a crop of extra fine lambs next spring.

Fairview Stock Farm, Carberry, Man., the property of Mr. John Barron, was recently visited by one of our staff. His fine Shorthorns, about twenty-five (25) in number were found in comfortable winter quarters and thrifty condition. There was besides a fine lot of grade steers being fattened that show well the advantages of good breeding. A few thoroughbreds amongst this lot exhibited the superior breeding qualities of the breed to a still greater degree. His excellent stock bull, Barrington Waterloo, is one that possesses not only such qualities as mark his progeny with good fattening characteristics, but from a show standpoint his record at the Winnipeg Industrial in 1891 speaks for itself. There were many individuals worthy of special mention, but space will not permit. A fine bull calf by Barrington Waterloo, out of Lady Fairview 2nd - 17341 - attracted our attention, being very promising.
Mr. Barron has also a fine lot of pedigree Berkshires from Mr. J. C. Snell's importations that are good representatives of the breed, and the young stock are strong and growing, some of them being of splendid form. From these good selections for breeding purposes can be made.

THE VALUE OF ADVERTISING IN THE ADVOCATE.

We are in receipt of a letter from Mr. H. K.
Zavitz, of Carberry, in which he says, "I have received so many enquiries for fowls, through my advertisement in the ADVOCATE, that I sold all I can spare just now."

Mr. Winkler, of Gretna, hands us the following letter from one of the customers he go-through the ADVOCATE:—

Dear Sir, I received the young White Yorkshire boar you shipped me, and I am more than pleased with him. I intend to breed him to twenty-five high grade Berkshire sows. As a butcher, I find the white hogs the most profitable for cutting up, as the fat and lean are better mixed. Enclosed please find $10, with much thanks for being so prompt. I would like to have him called "Uster Hero," so as to make an "Irishman" of him.

Yours truly, JAMES CONVERY, Morris, Man.
