Premiums Reduced By Profits

The Profits paid to Policyholders of The Great-West Life Assurance Company are so substantial that when used to reduce future premiums these premiums have in all cases been reduced to a figure BELOW THE NET COST of Insurance on the Government standard.

This year the Fifteen Year Deferred Dividend Policies of the Company mature. These Policies have earned, and will be paid, the full amount of the high profits estimated at the time of issue.

These admirable results, with the low premium rates charged for Insurance, make the Great-West Policies exceedingly attractive to intending applicants. Ask for rates at your age.

THE MODEL DAD.

Lives there a dad with soul so dead
Who never to his son hath said:
"When I was your age I would run
To do the thing I had to do;
I never till my work was done
Found any pleasure to pursue;
My parents never had to scold,
And every rule they ever made
For me was honestly obeyed;
I never frowned and never told
A falsehood when I was a boy;
I gave my parents daily joy
By doing well and being kind
By being truthful and polite;
My speech was proper and refined,
My heart contained no room for spite!
If such there be, go mark him well,
For he's a bird! But none such dwell
Upon this earth—unknown, unsung.
Such wonders all die very young."
—Chicago Record-Herald.

THE CITY POETS.

The poets with their cattle songs
Not far from cities roam,
They never had to hunt 'em up
An' drive the cattle home!
They sing about "the patient eyes"
Of oxen—every one—
They never plowed a lazy ox
Beneath a blazin' sun!
They sing the farmer's life an' all—
The "plowboy's merry shout."
In fact, 'bout everything they don't
Know anything about!
But, plow 'em in a corn field
A little while; an' then
They sing, when comes the time to quit,
Jest nuthin' but "Amen!"
—Atlanta Constitution.

His Preference—Do you "favor any particular school of music?" asked the lady.
"Yes, indeed," replied the young man who lives in a flat. "I favor the pianissimo school."
A good story of Dryden's autograph is told. At a recent sale of old books and curios the auctioneer said:—
"This book, gentlemen, is especially valuable, as it contains a marginal note in the handwriting of John Dryden. Five pounds offered. Going—going—gone. It is yours, sir."
The autograph marginal note by the renowned scholar was as follows:—
"This book is not worth the paper it is printed on."
—Taller.

The last applicant for help found the pantry supplies exhausted, but the mistress made it a rule never to turn any away empty-handed.
"Here's a dime for you, my man," she said to the frayed and ragged-looking individual who stood under the grape-arbor with extended hand. "I'm not giving it to you for charity's sake, but merely because it pleases me."
"Thankee, but couldn't you make it a quarter and enjoy yourself thoroughly, mum?"
A young minister unexpectedly called upon to address a Sunday-school asked, to gain time:
"Children, what shall I speak about?"
A little girl on the front seat, who was in the habit of reciting at entertainments, had committed to memory several declamations so that she was always prepared for any occasion. Sympathy and interest shone in her face as she held up her hand and in a shrill voice inquired:
"What do you know best?"

Seated in a row on the porch of an old-country inn, with their chairs tipped back, some old cronies were going on about unlucky days. After all had given what they considered their unlucky days a quiet old chap at one end spoke up:
"An' I'll tell ye ma' unlucky days. An' I found 'em in me time that it's unlucky to be struck wif' lightning on a Monday, or to be caught wif' a circular saw on a Tuesday, or to tumble over a board on a Wednesday, or to be run over by a motor-car on a Thursday, or lose a ten-pun note on a Friday, or to be bitten by a mad dog on a Saturday, and hey-cow! for dinner on the Sun' day!"

KOOTENAY FRUIT LANDS

I am developing an excellent tract of Fruit Land. I need some help and make this offer:
I will sell 10 acres at $100 per acre. I will accept $250 cash and allow purchaser to pay for balance by working on my land, for which I will allow him $3.00 for every ten hour day he works, said payments to apply on reduction of payments on land.
Purchaser must give me at least half of his time. He may devote other half improving his own land, or may give whole time on my land and thus get his own more quickly paid for.
This is an excellent chance for the man of little means, who cannot see how he is going to meet his future payments on land purchased on terms.
This offer is limited to a small number—prompt action is necessary to secure this chance.
