Wit and Humor

It is better to marry a short man than not to marry a-tall.

Barber (about to lather)—“Do you mind shutting your mouth, sir?” Tired Customer—“No—do you?”

Lady—My little boy has worms.
What shall I do?

Neighbor—Feed him fish, they like 'em ”

You used to be able to judge the amount of clothing a woman wore by the time it took her to dress, but them days is gone forever.

Some girls love to ride in cars, Because they love to ride;
While others like to ride in cars
For the lovin' on the side.

HEISLER HOTEL IS PREY OF FLAMES

Loss Will Be $7,000; Several Guests Lose Personal Effects

Heisler, Alta., Jan. 29—The Heisler hotel lies a mass of smoking ruins this morning as a result of a fire which broke out in one of the upper rooms at eleven o'clock last evening.

The fire was first discovered by the proprietor, Engelbert Hauck, who had just gone the round of the building and noticed the smell of smoke.
Thinking this came from the stoves, he inspected these, but on finding these all right he became alarmed and went back upstairs. Then he saw the inside of room No. 9 a mass of flames and slammed the door shut on the blaze and ran to the alarm.

WALKER

Mr. George Becker, Vice had the misfortune to have fall on the pavement at one evening last week, dislocat-his shoulder and breaking a small bone which pressed against the muscles. The shoulder had to be opened up for surgical treatment but has been doing fine and he was able to leave the County Hospital on Sunday. It will be some weeks before he will have the full use of his arm again.

County Magistrate McNab had a hard day at Kincairdine on Saturday dealing with no less than six cases.
The Kincairdine Township School Secretary was let off on suspended sentence, he having
