With a wonderful mastery of diction and wealth of vocabulary and a fluency contined the topic. He was an announced to speak on "Revelations of the War" but it was a many sided subject and he had decided to discuss the "Spirit of Prussianism and the Menace which lies at our Door."

He outlined the development of Prussianism as only one phase of the barbarity of all ages which was an attempt to hold the human race in fee. The peril is only seen by those who have been led to think for themselves and in whose breasts are the proper conception of personal i freedom and independence of thought and Mrs. Kavan and Mr. And Mrs. Springle, Mr. Morrison, Mr. Dunham.
