for the winter in a private family in a sunny well-heated room. Apply stating price to Miss Mary Ritchie, 31 Hills St. Kentville.

Kentville was never so crowded with visitors as during the past few days. Every available room, coaches, lounges, verandas were used to accommodate the people who were seeing their soldier boys at Aldershot. You will need a new suit, a pair of pants or a coat this fall. Call and have your measurements at L. M. Ward's. New clothes and latest styles now in tailor made.

Mr. C. J. Clark publisher of the Advertiser with his wife and daughter have been enjoying a motor trip through the Valley to Kentville and Aldershot. Mr. Clark gave the Advertiser a call on Friday.

When in need of a "Butcher" Patterson, send your order to L. M. Ward, Canning, New street.

The Times News, Oct. 3rd says: A party of soldiers ran away October 2nd from the Military Camp at Aldershot, Kent. The Twenty of these men reached Trent this morning and were taken in charge by the authorities here and detained until further orders were received.

The Progress Enterprise in referring to the Advertiser Exhibition said: "The display from Kentville Government farm was a most attractive one and was greatly admired. Very much valuable information was obtained at this booth, and those who sought information were treated with every courtesy."

EXPERIMENTAL STATION'S EXHIBIT
(Yarmouth Post)

The experimental station at Kentville, which is in charge of Prof. W. S. Hair, is occupying one of the most attractive buildings in the building. The exhibit is in charge of R. D. J. Black. Its object is to draw attention to the work being done at this and other experimental stations of the Experimental farm division. One of the main features it is trying to place before the farmers is the value of the stone in producing a good crop of clover. Attention is also drawn to the value of saving seed—strain from another which can be controlled by treating the seed with a solution of formalin and water. Special attention is directed to the stock line is directed to keeping more sheep on the farm. Demonstrations showing the importance of weeding the milk to detect the best cows in the herd are shown, and photos showing the different phases of farm work are in vogue.

The substances used to make match tips now cost seven hundred dollars a ton. It would be almost impossible to live in a matchbox world, yet a hundred years ago the friction match was as undreamed of as the electric lamp.

Heating Stoves

Now that the weather is getting cold, will be a gentle reminder that a new "HEATING STOVE" is needed this fall.

The Question is which kind will it be?

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. John T. Farham of West Roxbury, Mass., was called here suddenly on Friday last by the death of his father at Uper Canada. He was accompanied by Mrs. Farham who made a short visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Cox, Kentville. They left on Saturday for St. John where they attended the funeral of Mr. Farham, senior and then accompanied by Mrs. Farham's mother returned to Roxbury, Mass., where the latter will make her home.

For Sale—A top buggy, strong and good condition, also light driving harness. Apply at Advertiser Office.

Mr. William Crace has returned to his home in England and arrived there quite safely last Saturday week. He sailed from the S.S. "Kronland" from New York after making a business visit to that City and Boston. Mr. Crace will be in charge of the selling and of the application of the season while his son, Stanley, attends to the business and shipping part of it.

The New York Herald says: "The Royal Belgian Lloyd, a new steamship line $15,000,000 of its $30,000,000 capital, authorized by the Belgian Government, starts its first vessel from this port this week. And not a ship of all the splendid merchant fleet of her oppressor has left this port in more than two years. It is a righteous retribution that the ships of the despoilers of Belgium should have been swept off the seas."

Stanley Crace reports that his father in Liverpool, Messrs. Crace, White and Hall, Ltd., made the good crop of clover. Attention is also drawn to the value of saving seed—strain from another which can be controlled by treating the seed with a solution of formalin and water. Special attention is directed to the stock line is directed to keeping more sheep on the farm. Demonstrations showing the importance of weeding the milk to detect the best cows in the herd are shown, and photos showing the different phases of farm work are in vogue.
