 DEAR SIR AND BROTHER,—We, the undersigned members of the bible class in connection with the Methodist Sunday school, on this, the eve of your departure from among us, wish to convey to you some slight token of our appreciation of the efforts which you have put forth for the success of our class. Your untiring energy for the promotion of church work, and your ever keen interest in the welfare of our class as a whole, as well as each individual member, will be an incentive to us in our efforts to aid and benefit each other. Feeling our inability to express on this occasion all that our feelings prompt us to do, we beg you to accept the accompanying bible, a token of our esteem, hoping in future days it may be a reminder to you and serve to recall many pleasing recollections of our work together. We also express our sincere wishes for your prosperity and happiness through out your future business relations, and hope that in your new home you will be able to lend that assistance which you have so cheerfully rendered while with us.
 Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsville Ind., says: "I had been in a distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia and Indigestion until my health was gone. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy." Warranted by J. P. Lamb.

BARGAINS IN JANUARY.
 They Appeal to Thoughtful Intelligence.
 Don't be prejudiced. Everybody knows that the newspapers are full of dull advertisements of ridiculous "January Clearing Sales." The days are not long past when the phrase, "Only an advertisement," was sufficient to condemn unread all advertising. But there are proper appeals to your intelligence and self-interest—advertisements worth your time and care in reading. Such as ours.
 Do not let vague statements of doubtful facts gain mastery of your mind. Accept truth, even though it come to you as an advertisement. Do this and it will pay you.
 If you are in need of a new dress you certainly should not miss this opportunity. Our winter stock is well assorted and at the prices we now offer them it is greatly to your advantage to buy.
