E. B. Arthur, musical director of the Chatham Philharmonic Society, has returned from his vacation, spent at New York and other eastern points. While in the American metropolis, Mr. Arthur secured several new musical features which the local society will take up this fall.

There is an awful gang of young fellows at Dyer's corner on St. Clair street every night," said a citizen this morning. "They cause a great deal of disturbance and are very rough and rude. The other night my wife and two little girls were coming alone when one of the toughs nearly knocked my wife off the sidewalk." The police would do well to look into this matter.

L. V. Proctor, who has been in the Public General Hospital, left there yesterday under the hallucination that he ought to be in the police station. He went to Ald. John Edmondson's residence on Head St. and asked Miss Flossie Edmondson, who was sitting on the verandah, if he could telephone to the police station. He said he wanted an officer to come over and take him in charge. Contractor Thomas Martin happened along about this time and induced Mr. Proctor to return to the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Arthur and daughter Shirley have returned from a month's vacation spent in Toronto, Hamilton, Buffalo and New York. They spent a most enjoyable time while away. While in New York Mr. Arthur secured all the latest musical novelties for the piano, organ and voice. He has some good music which he will introduce into the Philharmonic Society this fall.

An item appeared in yesterday's issue relative to an alleged altercation at the Standard Bank, which investigation proves was without foundation in fact. It is unfortunate that so many individuals are always ready to hand out exaggerated and inaccurate reports to the newspapers, and The Planet sincerely regrets that it was made the victim of one of these irresponsible in this case. As a matter of fact, there was no "pushing" and no "argument." The item was particularly regrettable in that it did serious injustice both to Mr. Loudon and to the Bank itself.

A peculiarly unfortunate incident came to the attention of Major Coogan and other county officials to-day. Adolph Richey, of Pain Court, had a horse and buggy stolen from his stable. He had a charge of horse stealing against Paul Dusett. S. F. Dennis arrested Dusett and brought him to the city. He proved to be a lad a little over 15 years old, but very bright. He talks English without a foreign accent. Paul is small for his years, but has a pleasing face and big dark eyes. He, however, is a cripple. Five years ago he had his right leg broken off by the cars and has to use a crutch to get around. Poor Paul can neither read nor write nor count. The nearest school is two miles away and in his crippled condition he couldn't go the distance.

He had acknowledged taking the horse. He said he wanted a ride and went and hitched up Mr. Richey's horse and drove around. Perhaps the lad wasn't altogether to blame. He tired of hobbling around on a crutch and wanted to move about a little in comfort. The Children's Aid Society will interest themselves in the boy.
