

THE DAILY HERALD, MONDAY, MAY 12, 1890.

MARRIED IN SECRET.

BY MATTIE E. RANDALL.

CHAPTER XVI.—Continued.

"So she's gone again, too," he growled savagely. "What's the good of having children, if they turn and read you? She's all set now on that gay young lover of hers, but he'll give her the shake, and then she'll wish she'd stood by her old father. It's always the way—alw-a-y-s the way."

Here he caught his foot in the gnarled roots of an old oak tree, and stumbled heavily forward, sorely disturbing the repose of a young family encamped in the woods. The mother, who was sitting on the ground, started up in alarm, and then she'll wish she'd stood by her old father. It's always the way—alw-a-y-s the way."

HEALTHFUL EXERCISE. Only a few months ago these rumping, rickety, checked lass were puny, sickly, pale, sickly girls. By the aid of Dr. Pierce's Wonderful Kidney and Bladder Pills, they have blossomed out into beautiful, plump, healthy, strong young women.
