Truth Is Sometimes Stranger than Fiction.

There has come to light a wonderful se of restoration to health, at Lakeville, case of restoration to health, at Lakeville, Corner, N. B. The particulars were first given out Feb. 3, 1894, and are as follows: Mrs. R. Upton, of that place, had fits, dive or six a month and sometimes fifteen a day, for five or six years Five physicans treated her for her chief trouble—severe and chronic indigestion and inability to retain food on her stomach.

In the spring of '93 she commenced to ake "Groder's Syrup." Since then she as had no symptom of fits, her general eath has wonderfully improved and she eats anything."
