DOMINION DAY.

The 25th Anniversary of the Formation of a Nation.

Our Country 'Tis of Thee.

To-day we celebrate the 25th Anniversary of the Confederation of the Provinces of Ontario and Quebec, then known as Upper and Lower Canada, and Nova Scotia and New Brunswick; those were afterwards joined by Prince Edward Island, and eventually, when the purchase of the Hudson's Bay Territory had been accomplished, by British Columbia. We just mention these facts not for the purpose of introducing an account of all that has been accomplished, but simply to show that Canadians have an heritage to be proud of and one destined to become one of the great nations of the earth.

Hence it is fitting that so important an event as the 25th ANNIVERSARY of the formation of
