The open events to be held at Britan-nia Park at night are also creating great interest. On account of every event being a handicap, every athletic has a chance to gather in some of the prizes, which are the best offered here in a long time. Entry blanks can be obtained from Billy Carroll or from Charles J. Webber, 55 John street north.

W. O. Sealey Denotes a Cup.

Mr. W. O. Sealey, M.P., will donate a 1909 Sealey cup, valued at $10, for a three mile foot race at the South Wentworth agricultural fair this fall. All county residents will be eligible. Mr. Sealey's idea in giving the prize is to encourage speed and athletic skill among farm boys and country residents.

SCRAPS OF SPORT

Young Willoughby, the Buffalo light-weight wrestler, is matched to meet an unknown farmer boy wrestler of Delevan. The latter has a big following of backers to bet their man defeats the Buffalo wrestler. The match to be best two out of three falls to a finish. The men will wrestle in the near future. The men are to weigh 133 pounds, matside.

Saratoga, Aug. 19.—Abe Attell, the eatherweight champion, and Harry Saratoga, Aug. 19.—Abe Attell, the featherweight champion, and Harry Stone, of New York, fought ten rounds to a draw last night before the Saratoga Athletic Club. Until the last two rounds, wher Stone carried the fight to the champion from bell to bell, it was a tame and featureless exhibition.

Two thousand racing men, owners and trainers, witnessed the bout.

Local Men Figured Well in All the Matches.

Long Branch Rifle Ranges, Aug. 19.— Yesterday's scores at the fortieth annual matches of the Ontario Rifle Asso ciation, at the Long Branch Rifle Rang es, were not only much better than those of the day before, but in one those of the day before, but in one match—the Macdonald—they excelled those of last year, when some very good shooting was done. But one unpleasant incident marred the day's shooting. This was in the contest for the School Cadets' team prize. Harbord Collegiate and Dundas High School were the two teams which had about an equal chance at winning the prize. At the finish of the shooting Dundas was one point ahead of the Harbord boys. Principal E. W. Hagarty, of Harbord, protested. He said that Cadet-Sergt. C. S. Thornton, of Dundas High School, had no right to change his rifle after he had fired several shots at the target.

The executive considered the matter. There is no rule in the O. R. A. regulations not permitting a competitor to
