Why the Buyer of Amatite Never Complains

Hyon

When a man buys ordinary ready roofing he usually neglects to paint it and after three or four years he comes back to the dealer with a protest. It is human nature to neglect painting roofs.

When a man buys Amatite Reverse of mineral can be rolled unannear and handled just like any other ready roofing. When unmore and handled just like any other ready roofing. When unmore and handled just like any other ready roofing. When unmore and pitch. On this surface wind, rolled on the roof and nailed down rise, storm, heat and cold have little effect. Year after year it looks up to the sky undisturbed and unaffected. It costs nothing to maintain and relieves the owner from all responsibility.

Dealers can improve their business by selling Amatite and buyers make a good bargain when they buy it. The price of Amatite is armis done ness men are doing the very same are grown the finer the favor. We things themselves. I think I am have been asked to send them to ton that they have not a cal furnace in their stores. Then in place I hope they will not put hay and lots of good No. 1 one in our churches. Why send the country to good dry wood in all this money to Nova Scotia and other places when we live in a wood country, and there are lots of buy produce and clothing for their families?

Then the merchants import all kinds of vegetables, fruits, hay and oats and numerous other articles that are produced here, if they get them not a few cents cheaper) but half a cent cheaper. In many cases those articles are larger than a cent, you had better order wood furnaces. a trifle cheaper they sell, and often HAY! comodation. Our new quarters, just glut the market and make it difficult for the farmers to sell their To the Merchants of Restigouche crisp, fresh, healthy vegetables and fruit. It discourages many a farmer for they import 'it earlier One is tired of seeing and hear-ing of this one sided question of buy when ours is ready. But it sending our money out of town, is a well known fact that the farwhen the merchants and all busisafe in saying that there is not Halifax and Cape Breton; They find them better than what they can produce there. They do not see the hay they buy, it is often their homes we find a coal furn-tilled up with refuse even stones; the country today not sold because the merchants do those things

I know of pecple who had to wood country, and there are lots of give up burning coal on account poor men who cannot leave their of expense and filth (it was ruinhomes all winter but can bring in ing their houses) and found they a few cords of wood and in return could heat their houses cheaper and cleaner with wood. I do not believe in spending our money out of town but the merchants better examine themselves first before they throw stones at others. Those Yours truly,
