HIRAM'S CONVERSION.

A STORY WITH A MORAL.

Old Hiram Gormley was an individual sanctity and uprightness, and was an elder of the church to which he beionged. A very good man and thorough Christian old Hiram considered himself, for he had family prayers every morning, went to church every Sunday, and allowed the cook to give every sunday and allowed the cook to all the uneatable scraps of bread which remained in the larder to any beggar who applied for them. A judicious parent he believed himself to be, and a just one, for when his only daughter had married against his will be head of the scraps of the object of the scraps of the chiracons of the chir As she sowed, so shall she reap,' he mutgrieved face in her shabby bonnet.
