Capt. Paterson Home Again.

TALKS WELL OF OUR REGIMENT.

Dr. L. Paterson, who left here with the First Newfoundland Regiment, in the capacity of Chief Medical Officer, arrived back by the Allan Line Monday afternoon. Telling of his experiences in the Old Country, Dr. Paterson speaks in commendable terms of our boys.

When the volunteers disembarked at Plymouth, after a most enjoyable run across, they were given a royal and most enthusiastic welcome. They proceeded to the barracks of the Ninth Devonshire Regiment at Mill Bay and after a short stay entrusted for Patney. The entraining officer congratulated Commanding Officer Alexander and the Newfoundland Regiment on their appearance and was delighted to see them. From Patney a start was made for Pond Farm Camp, Salisbury Plain. They were accompanied enroute by two cyclists as guides. On reaching their destination they were given a warm reception by a guard of New Zealanders. Shortly after our boys went into camp. Continuing, Dr. Paterson said that under canvas as well as every other way our boys are behaving splendidly. Their discipline, training and conduct generally is the best on the Plains out of 65,000. As an evidence of the reputation our boys are establishing, the Strathcona Horse which is the regiment looked up to for discipline, speaks highly of our regiment. For special and picket duty our officers and privates are selected and this is a tribute of their worth. Our boys have had the honor of being inspected by His Majesty King George, the late Earl Roberts and Lord Kitchener. General Alderson, who is in charge of the Canadians, visited our regiment and did much for the comfort of all. Lt.-Col. Clegg is delighted with the appearance and training of our boys. Capt. Franklin is second in command. Since leaving here there has been an entire absence of accident or illness among our boys. The food is good and there is plenty of it. There is also a good deal of drill. The weather has been very backward lately. Our boys go for a march every afternoon and their marching, bearing and formation are all excellent. The conduct of our boys, said Dr. Paterson, is a credit to themselves and to the Colony and not a single offence of a serious character has been lodged against any one of them. It is not known yet when they will leave for the front. Dr. Paterson left the boys last Tuesday week. They were then in the best of spirits, looking forward for the time to come to go to the front.

There is a great call for volunteers and recruits in the Old Country and the vehicles bear signs such as "Come for a Year," "Your Country Needs You," "Come to the Piping Line," and "Stand by Britain" and many others. While on the way to Patney, Sergeant McConnell fell off the train, through the sudden opening of a door against which he leaned. He was quickly located by Dr. Paterson and the ambulance crew and was found to be only slightly injured, and as well as ever. This was the only accident that occurred, and all the boys were in the best of health and spirits when the doctor left.

Colonel Clegg Writes on Our Boys.

Pond Farm Camp, Salisbury Plain, Nov. 1914. Col. Sir Walter E. Davidson, K.C.M.G., St. John's, Newfoundland: Dear Sir,—For the past two weeks, since the arrival in this camp of the First Newfoundland Regiment, I have had the honor of being their Lieut.-Colonel in Command, and I wish to take this opportunity on the departure for home of their senior Medical Officer, Captain Paterson, to have conveyed to you and the people of Newfoundland sincere congratulations on the splendid contingents you have sent to assist the Mother Country and the Empire in the present great war.

I do not mean so much in point of numbers, although this is very creditable considering your population, as in the calibre of the officers and men. While I have no wish to give comparisons, I believe that they are not surpassed by any unit in the camp for all round smartness on parade, steadiness in the ranks and good intelligence, while their physical fitness appears to be excellent. Newfoundland may be proud of her sons; they will no doubt give a good account of themselves, should they get into the stress of war. My command is only temporary, but I feel that it has been a privilege to have been associated even for a short time with your contingent.

Believe me, Sincerely yours, E. B. CLEGG, Lieut.-Col. Canadian Regiment.

B. I. S. Meeting

The quarterly meeting of the B. I. S. Society was held after last Mass yesterday, Hon. J. D. Ryan presiding. Several applicants were admitted to membership. The reports from the various branches of the Society were very favourable and showed the organization to be in a flourishing condition.

A notice of motion dealing with an adjustment of the Constitution was tabled by Mr. J. S. Keating and will be open for discussion at the annual meeting in February next.

The following resolution of sympathy was adopted by the Society as a mark of respect to the memory of the Society's Patron, the late Archbishop Howley:—

WHEREAS—There has lately happened in our midst a great calamity, both to the Catholic community in general and to our venerable society in particular through the calling to the Great Beyond of the Most Rev. M. F. Howley, Archbishop of St. John's. The late Prelate had endeavored himself to our hearts in a thousand ways. To our Society he was a patron and a friend. Not more than four years ago he was a moving spirit in the erection of St. Patrick's Hall and later he lent his powerful assistance and advice towards the completion of the O'Donnell Hall—a memorial of the Centenary of the Society. He was always willing and eager to help on the great cause of education by his scholarly wisdom and erudite advice; his main desire being to see the schools usher into the world boys of upright character and sturdy faith, his one aim to conserve and foster in our midst that pure and noble spirit of love of Mother Erin to which it is our proud privilege to dedicate our Society. His death severs one of the last links that bind us to the past.

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED—That in common with the condolences of the Catholic community we extend to the Administrator of the Diocese, the Clergy, and the relatives of the deceased, the deep and sincere regrets of the Benevolent Irish Society at the passing of a great man, a pure friend.

Love and War at the Nickel.

A PICTURE FOR THE TIMES. The beautiful pictures at the Nickel Theatre last week will be followed by others equally as good this week. A glance at the programme published elsewhere in this issue will prove that an attractive and well-prepared. The two reel feature film for this evening is "Fitzhugh's Ride" and is suitable to the times, for it is a war drama. It contains a sweet love story which is beautifully interwoven with the scenes of battle. The acting is all that can be desired and citizens are sure to be pleased with it. "Children of Destiny" is a great melo-drama by the Biograph artists. Such pictures as this do more to elevate humanity and make us realize how much we are dependent one on another, than anything else. Be sure and see it and you will be convinced. "Mabel's Story" (Love Affair) is a Keystone comedy which is an assurance that it will be a lively one. "Red Head" introduces herself; it is also a bright comic. There will also be a full reel of Hearst-Selig News Pictorial, giving the latest events in the history of the world. Arthur C. Huskins will be heard in a new song, and Prof. McCarthy and Ross will give new music and effects. Make time and see this show at the Nickel, if not, you will be sorry.

Ordination at R. C. Cathedral.

On Wednesday next at 8.30 a.m. the ceremony of Ordination will take place at the R. C. Cathedral, His Lordship Rt. Rev. Bishop March officiating. The candidate to be raised to the sacred office of the Priesthood is a Mr. Enright, a native of Kill-Kenny, who has been in the city for some time past.

S. S. GLENCOE.—The S. S. Glencoe which was delayed at Port aux Basques during the storm of Friday and Saturday last, got away from there early yesterday morning, she is due at Placentia to-morrow afternoon.

NOVEMBER 23. New Moon—17th St. Clement. Days Past—226 To Come—38 THOMAS TALLIS died 1585, aged 70. A distinguished musician who as organist attached to the Chapel Royal, was the composer of some of the finest of our Church music. RICHARD HAKLUYT died 1616, aged 63. "Hakluyt's Voyage" is a well-known book to students. The writer's tastes turned to geography, in which subject he became so expert that he was appointed lecturer in geography at Oxford. He is said to have introduced the use of globes in schools. Helped by Sir Walter Raleigh, Hakluyt compiled a record of travels and geographical discoveries. He was buried in Westminster Abbey.

BEFORE THE BATTLE. Holspur: O Gentlemen, the time of life is short! To spend that shortness basely, were too long. If life did ride upon a dial's point, Still coming at the arrival of an hour, An' still we live, we live to tread on kings; If die, brave death, when princes ride With us, our consciences, the arms are fair. When the intent of bearing them is I think him that he cuts me from my tale. For I profess and talking; only this—Let each man do his best; and here draw I A sword, whose temper I intend to stain With the best blood that I can meet withal. In the adventure of this perilous day, Now, Esperance! Percy! and set on. Sound all the lofty instruments of war. And by that music let us all embrace, For heaven to earth, some of us never or shall. A second time do such a courtesy. Shakespeare's Henry IV.

Tribute to Our Boys.

FROM CHAPLAIN. The following letter received by Rt. Rev. Mons. Roche, V.G., Administrator of the Archdiocese from Rev. Fr. Doe, the Chaplain in charge of the R. C. boys of the First Newfoundland Regiment, was read from the pulpit at the R. C. Cathedral last evening:— Rt. Rev. Mgr. Roche, Adm., St. John's. Rev. and Dear Sir,—As Chaplain at Headquarters of the Fourth Infantry Brigade, to which brigade the First Newfoundland Regiment is attached, I am taking advantage of the departure of one of our Officers for home to write you a word or two concerning those members of the Contingent from your city and its environs who are under my spiritual charge.

I have no doubt but words of commendation for our brave boys; they are most attentive to all their Church duties and obligations and obedient to the authorities that have been placed over them. All officers and men are a credit to the Church and the priests, their homes and their parents and consequently to the Canadian Overseas Expeditionary Force. I am within a hundred yards of these boys and Mass is celebrated every day at a convenient hour. All are in good health and spirits, not one being in the field hospital. I hope to be in close touch with the boys I am so proud of until such time as Divine Providence shall see us safely home. In the meantime I beg your prayers for the boys of the First Newfoundland Regiment and for all our Canadian troops. I remain, Sincerely yours, (Capt.) EDWARD GORDON DOE, Chaplain Fourth Infantry Brigade.

The above letter will, we feel sure, awaken a sense of pride in the hearts of the relatives and friends of the boys in the church. We can imagine the pride with which the late Archbishop Howley would receive such a message, were he alive to-day. It will be remembered that before the lads went to the front His Grace addressed them from the pulpit of the Cathedral in a wholesome manner, exhorting them to be true to their God, their King and their Country. This discourse given on the Sunday preceding the departure of the Regiment was the last public utterance of the late lamented Prelate, whose memory will always be green in the hearts of his people. Truly, the Church may be said to be reaping the fruit of the seeds sown by this illustrious Prelate, by his stirring and simple words to the Volunteers.

Vaudeville's Best.

KELLY and MACK. To-night the two Irish comedians Kelly and Mack, will open their engagement at Rossley's. They are singers, dancers, musical comedy, real old time performers; no Johnny new comedy or adventures. For many years fond of good dancing, they will certainly have a treat. No Turkey trot about those dancers, but the Irish dances that are fast, fading away, in fact there are very few in the business to-day who can accomplish those old jigs and reels. Mr. Kelly will show many different styles and Mr. Mack will render beautiful selections on both cornet and violin. They have several good Irish sketches which will make patrons laugh and forget their troubles, and don't forget that Rossley's pictures can't be beat.
