"The Hall is Not Told."

Last week we pointed out that the communication sent to the Daily News as a reply to the complaints from Our Boys in the Dardanelles on the face of it in no way extenuated the complaints, but that it aggravated them. The suggestion that the complaints were made before October 10th, and that the comforts had arrived about that time we pointed out was negatived by the time estimated for the transportation. We pointed out further that the comforts, prepared by the assiduous work of the noble women workers of the W. P. A. throughout the Island, were not due, according to the shortest estimated time until Nov. 1st, when it was suggested the official winter clothing would be given out.

The letter of Private Frank Lind published in the Daily News "this morning makes it clear that the W. P. A. comforts had not been distributed on Oct. 30th, and he makes no mention of expecting any official supply two days later. The letter is a many one, and is not only a confirmation of complaints from other sources, but it establishes the facts completely. We will cut the paragraphs which deal with this matter.

"It is a little warmer the past few days, but we dread the cold days and nights to come. Perhaps to-day it will change again, and then comes that rotten cold dampness for days and days. The people who fitted us out for a warm climate, when sending us here, had a poor idea of what it is like. I don't suppose there are ten men in the regiment who were lucky enough to have brought a pair of drawers with them. I hope you won't think I am complaining, but I am sure I voice the sentiments of every man in the regiment when I tell you that we feel disgusted on looking through the St. John's (Newfoundland) papers and read about so many thousands of pairs of socks, thousands of underclothing, etc., being knitted by the good women at home for 'our boys at the front.' The question somebody asks every day is: 'Where does it all go to?' for men in the Regiment are cold and wretched standing sentry at night with perhaps one thin shirt under his tunic. I would shock you if I told the length of time most of the shirts have been on the men since being washed. Lots of them are wearing the same shirt put on either in Aldershot or en route. We have not received anything from the W. P. A. since we were at Fort George.

NO Y. M. C. A. S THERE.

Now all along until we got to the front, none of the men bothered, as we were always in places where there were shops, and when a man wanted any clothing or anything he went and bought it, but here as I have already told you, we are isolated. Money is of no use, and if there were shops to buy things nobody would say a word. Are you aware that in the firing line in France the men spend, I understand, about 48 hours in the trenches and 96 hours out, but when out they have not dug-outs as we, but Y. M. C. A. canteens, stores and houses to go to, and have a good feed, a bath, and all sorts of luxuries, and buy anything you need. Yet they seem to be getting the clothing that is so badly needed amongst our men. Don't think I exaggerate when I say 'badly needed' for 'the half is not told.' I see things that would make your heart ache. Then of course a soldier's life is rough, but why not make it as pleasant as possible, and the winter is set in here.

SENT BUT NOT RECEIVED.

All the different Regiments here have their packages time after time sent from the country, or city, as the case may be, which they represent; parcels of chocolates, cigarettes, and all sorts of things given by the people to their Regiment 'at the front.' For instance, the London Fusiliers have no end of stuff from London; the Royal Scots from Edinburgh, and so on. The Royal Scots were near us last time we were out of the trenches and when we met them they gave our fellows no end of cigarettes, candies, and in some cases pairs of gloves and mufflers, etc. They had more than they knew what to do with. Then the Australians, you ought to see the way they are looked after by their people. They need for nothing, and give piles of it away to whatever Regiments happen to be stationed near them from time to time, and those Australians are certainly 'gone' on the Newfoundlanders. ('Colonials, you know') they would do anything for our chaps. If we happen to meet up with any of them the word Newfoundlanders bears a charm. It is, 'Newfoundlanders ask what you will and you shall have it.'

We draw attention to the statement 'We have not received anything from the W. P. A. since the time we were at Fort George.'

In this connection, we would like to ask whether Sir Edgar Bowring drew attention to the state of affairs which existed at the time he arrived here, months ago, as to lack of W.P.A. comforts.

Pte. Frampton Returns.

Private Charles Frampton, of the 25th Battalion, Canadian Expeditionary Force, who was wounded on the Western Front, arrived back to the city by Saturday's express and will remain for medical treatment. He joined the Canadians in Winnipeg. He was in the firing line for several battles, notably the battle of Ypres when their Regiment, Dumbering 1140, was practically cleaned up, only 200, including three officers, surviving. It was following the Ypres battle Pte. Frampton was wounded. On a Sunday night while holding reserve trenches to be ready for Monday morning's work he was struck by shrapnel in the left shoulder and put out of commission. He was then removed to Thorncliffe Hospital, England. He says that conditions are excellent in the trenches for fighting and recites his experiences loosely. He is in the best of health despite his shoulder wound and is glad to be home once more.

BALLARD BROWN AND THE ONE AND ONLY MADGE LOCKE.

The patrons of Rossley's will be on hand to-night to extend a hearty welcome to the great actor vocalist Mr. Ballard Brown, and the one and only Madge Locke. Scores of patrons have said to Mr. Rossley, why don't you bring us people like Brown and Locke. There are not many Ballard Browns and certainly less Madge Lockes in the business. They are no picture house singers but high class artists, and the Rossleys knowing the quality of their work booked them for the greatest production ever witnessed here, the 4th annual pantomime Beauty and the Beast. There are good pictures also and the finest orchestra in the city.

To-Day's Fire.

At 11.35 a.m. to-day an alarm of fire was sent in from box 221, bringing the Central and Eastern companies to Rennie & Co's confectionery store, situated at the junction of Prescott Street and Rawlins' Cross. The fire broke out in the top flat of the building, where Mr. Rennie kept his office. Excessive heat from the chimney of the store there ignited the woodwork nearby. A blaze quickly followed and was in progress several minutes before the occupants of the store, beneath knew it. The firemen on arrival applied two streams of water and in a short time had the fire under control, but not before the flat was gutted and a few hundred dollars' worth of property destroyed. The under flat or shop was slightly damaged by smoke and water. The building is owned by Capt. Edward English and was insured in the Queen Ins. Co.

Hr. Grace Notes.

A son was born on Sunday last to Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Archibald.

The ladies of the Methodist Church are holding a parlor sociable at Coughlan Hall, on Tuesday night.

Steps are being taken for the election of a Road Board for Harbor Grace. This is a move in the right direction and one that we hope every elector will take an interest in, and endeavour to secure the very best Board possible.

We had a "field card" last evening from Private John Price, of the 2nd Regiment, now in the Dardanelles. All the paragraphs were erased with the exception of the one "I am well." All Jack's friends will be glad to hear this.

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place in the Methodist Parsonage on Thursday evening, December 2nd, when Mr. Althelstan L. Collis (voice trainer and piano tuner) and Miss Mary Melvina Parsons, daughter of Capt. James Parsons, H. M. C., were united in the holy bands of matrimony. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. A. Holmes; James P. Fox was best man, Mrs. Holmes acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. Chesley Holmes, grocerman. Mr. Collis has spent seven years in this town practicing his profession with credit to himself and satisfaction to the public. Miss Parsons was one of our most popular young ladies, and the very best wishes of all their friends will be theirs for a long and happy married life. A very large number of friends were present to witness the happy union and many valuable presents were received from different parts of the Island where friends took this opportunity of testifying to their esteem. We join with all the others in best wishes for long life and much happiness.

Mrs. Alex. Crocker arrived from St. John's by Wednesday night's train. She was over to see her son Harry, who is still at the General Hospital, but is doing very well and expects to be home for Xmas.

Miss Alcock went to St. John's by Tuesday's train to spend a while with friends there.
