An interesting social event took place at the bride's home, Coronation Street, on Saturday evening, Jan. 18th, when Miss Diademita Marshall, daughter of Mrs. Marshall and the late Capt. Joseph Marshall, of Carbonear, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Capt. Cecil Burke, son of Capt. Mark and Mrs. Burke, of Carbonear, by Adj. Harding, S.A. The bride was attended by Miss Sarah Miller and Misses May and Helen Marshall, and Miss Marion Burke, who acted as flower girl. The groom was ably supported by Mr. J. Marshall, brother of the bride. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome sum of money; to the bridesmaid a gold pendant, and to the best man a gold stick pin. Many and valuable were the gifts received, including a costly set of fox furs from the father of the groom to the bride.—Com.
