

THIS ORIGINAL DOCUMENT IS IN VERY POOR CONDITION

Evening Mercury

VOL. 1. NO. 41.

GUELPH, ON., CANADA, FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 6, 1867.

PRICE ONE PENNY

Reformers of South Wellington.

Show by your votes that you have no confidence in the present Government. Will you sell all the political privileges which you have heretofore so nobly and victoriously fought for? Then vote early on Friday for the men who will keep down bribery and corruption—men who will see that the new machinery of Confederation is set going economically. Vote for STIRTON and GOW.

GENTLEMEN'S

Travelling Satchels

JUST RECEIVED!

A LARGE ASSORTMENT of Gentlemen's Travelling Satchels.

AT DAY'S BOOKSTORE,

OPPOSITE THE MARKET.

Guelph, 21st Aug, 1867.

SOUTH RIDING OF WELLINGTON.

To the Electors of the South Riding of Wellington.

GENTLEMEN.—In compliance with the unanimous request of the delegates of the Reform Convention of the South Riding of Wellington, I am a candidate for the representation of this Riding in the Legislative Assembly of the Province of Ontario.

My residence amongst you extends to nearly a quarter of a century, and having for the greater portion of that time taken an active part in both municipal and political matters, my antecedents are consequently well known to most of you. I must therefore, only briefly state that, in the future as in the past, I will give a hearty support to the Liberal party—to whose long, consistent and faithful advocacy of their principles we are chiefly indebted for the great constitutional changes we are now about to enjoy—believing that their principles and policy are the best adapted to promote the general interests and prosperity of the country.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner. I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

I have been an earnest and zealous advocate for the Confederation of the Provinces, and have repeatedly given my views on this subject to the public in the most candid and disinterested manner.

SOUTH RIDING OF WELLINGTON.

To the Electors of the South Riding of Wellington:

GENTLEMEN.—I am a candidate for the representation of South Wellington in the House of Commons. I have become so at the request of a Convention of Reform Delegates, lately held in the Town of Guelph, and also at the request of many of my political friends throughout the Riding, who, while approving of my public career in the past, have been kind enough to express a willingness to still further extend the confidence reposed in me at the three last general elections.

I regard the new Constitution, so graciously conferred on us by His Majesty and the British Parliament, as the means by which the British North American Colonies will become firmly united together, and our connection with the British Empire established upon a firm and lasting basis, and if elected as your representative, I shall consider it my first and paramount duty to give a hearty and loyal support to the provisions of that Act.

On entering upon our new state of political existence, many important questions will of necessity engage the attention of our first Parliament, and much will depend upon the ability and integrity of the government composing it. Good and economical government is what the country most requires. Honesty of purpose, intelligence and ability are among the qualities necessary in the gentlemen at the head of our affairs, and to such men—if I am convinced that they are honestly working for the welfare of the country—I will give my government, or any set of men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

The events of the past eighteen months must have convinced the most skeptical that some more efficient system of defence is absolutely necessary for the better protection of the country. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

I am in principle opposed to the form of government styled "a Coalition." I believe that the general tendency of the arrangement of principle, the lowering of public morality, lavish public expenditure and general corruption in the management of our public affairs, but while holding those views in all sincerity, I am decidedly opposed to the introduction of any such coalition. I believe that the only way to secure the best government is to elect a government of honest and able men, who will at least attempt to do the best for the people, for the sake of place and power, or who will make their public duty subservient to their own personal aggrandizement.

Evening Mercury.

FRIDAY EVENING, SEPT. 6.

MESSRS. STIRTON & GOW'S

CENTRAL COMMITTEE

WILL MEET AT

CASEY'S HOTEL,

AT SEVEN O'CLOCK.

This (FRIDAY) Evening

Guelph, September 6, 1867.

Reformers! recollect that you cannot vote for Stone and Leslie without renouncing Reform principles. Being both uncompromising Tories they have no pretext for claiming you as their supporters. Be at the Polls to-morrow morning and vote early!

The Feeling in Europe.

With respect to the Salzburg meeting of sovereigns, opinions are so divided that it is scarcely possible to say which is most prevalent. The public, greedy of sensation, is unwilling to admit that it aims at no other objects than courteous greeting, condolences on a recent deplorable event, and professions of mutual good will.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW are the Farmers' Choice.

Mr. Thos. Wilson, of Mount Forest, has taken a first class certificate at the Toronto military school.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

THE REFORM TICKET

Vote early for these two tried Reformers and vote early. Bring every friend that you have up to the polls, and see that you vote early for STIRTON and GOW. One vote before 12 is worth two after.

THE BUFFALO EXPRESS

ridicules the cries of the "Unionists." It says: "Familiar cries are wafted over to us from the political combatants in the Dominion. 'The Union must be preserved,' shouts the Toronto Leader, in big type. 'There is only one issue to-day—Union or Disunion.' And so on, Methinks, or rather wethinks, we have heard these things before."

THE REFORM TICKET

Vote early for these two tried Reformers and vote early. Bring every friend that you have up to the polls, and see that you vote early for STIRTON and GOW. One vote before 12 is worth two after.

THE REFORM TICKET

Vote early for these two tried Reformers and vote early. Bring every friend that you have up to the polls, and see that you vote early for STIRTON and GOW. One vote before 12 is worth two after.

Vote early for these two tried Reformers and vote early. Bring every friend that you have up to the polls, and see that you vote early for STIRTON and GOW. One vote before 12 is worth two after.

Garafraxa Council.

Council Room, Aug. 15, '67. A special meeting was called by the Reeves for the purpose of considering the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railroads. Present, John Dobbin, Thomas Hamilton, Stephen Piper, W. H. Hunter, Deputy Reeve, Richard McClelland, Moved by Wm. H. Hunter, seconded by Thomas Hamilton, That the claim of Robert Conn be paid amounting to $23.50 for damage done to his sheep by dogs, and the Reeve give an order for the same. Carried. Moved by W. H. Hunter, seconded by Stephen Piper, That Watt & Bros. receive $20.00, an account for printing in this municipality. Carried. Moved by Stephen Piper, seconded by Wm. H. Hunter, That the sum of $2.00 be granted to purchase hand-cuffs for Constable Cooper, and the Reeve give an order for the same. Carried. The council then adjourned. W. McCORMACK, Clerk.

Council Room, Aug. 24th.

A special meeting was called by the Reeve to consider the Wellington Grey and Bruce Railroad. Present: J. Dobbin, Reeve, Stephen Piper, Richard McClelland, W. H. Hunter, Deputy Reeve, Thomas Hamilton. Moved by W. H. Hunter, seconded by Richard McClelland, That the Council go into Committee of the Whole to consider the By-law of the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railroad, and the Orangeville tramway. Carried. Moved by Wm. H. Hunter, seconded by Thos. Hamilton, That leave be given to introduce a By-law to authorize a subscription of $20,000 stock in the Wellington, Grey and Bruce Railroad, and the granting of $10,000 bonus to the Orangeville Tramway Company. Carried. Moved by Stephen Piper, seconded by Richard McClelland, That the Rail Road By-law be read a first and second time. Carried. The Council then adjourned. Wm. McCORMACK, Clerk.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW are the Farmers' Choice.

Mr. Thos. Wilson, of Mount Forest, has taken a first class certificate at the Toronto military school.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

John Bright on the Future Policy of the Reform League.

(From the London Times, August 29.) The following letter has recently been received by Mr. E. Beales, the President of the Reform League, in reply to the announcement that the League would use its organization, consisting of 430 branches, for the purposes of registration, educating the people in the use of the vote, and promoting the return to the next Parliament of members pledged to advanced Liberal principles: MY DEAR MR. BEALES—I am glad to see that it is not intended to discontinue the organization and labors of the Reform League, although so great a step has been gained in the extension of the suffrage. On that branch of the question of reform I presume you will not feel it necessary now to agitate further, so far as the boroughs are concerned. But the concession of a wide franchise is most incomplete so long as the security of the ballot is denied. As a machinery for conducting elections without disorder, the arrangement of the ballot is perfect, and if on that ground only, it should be adopted. But there is a higher ground on which all Reformers should insist upon. The more wide the suffrage, the more there are of men in humble circumstances who are admitted to the exercise of political rights, the more clearly it is necessary that the shelter of the ballot should be granted. I am confident it would lessen expenses at the elections, greatly diminish corruption, and destroy the odious system of intimidation which now so extensively prevails, and that it would make the House of Commons a more complete representation of the opinions of the electoral body. I have a very strong conviction on this subject, and I hope all our friends throughout the country will accept the ballot as the next great question for which, in connection with parliamentary reform, they ought to contend. Without this safeguard there can be no escape from corruption and oppression at elections and our political contests will still remain, what they now are, a contest of votes as a free and intelligent people. If the Reform League and Reform Union will make the ballot their next work, they must soon succeed. I need not tell you that I shall heartily join them in their labors for this great end. I hope the friends of the ballot, those who care for freedom and morality in the working of our representative system, will provide the needed funds to enable you to move on with an increasing force to complete success. Believe me always sincerely yours, JOHN BRIGHT, ED. BEALES, Esq., Lincoln's Inn, London.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

DAVID STIRTON and PETER GOW, the true Union Candidates.

Denied again.—The Hamilton Spectator gives currency to the Advertiser's story about Mr. Brown being asked, and consenting to run for the Centre Riding of Wellington. We may state again that there is not a word of truth in the statement.

TO-NIGHT.

The Central Reform Committee will meet at Casey's Hotel, Macdonell Street, at 7 o'clock, sharp. Let every member of the Committee be on hand. A few hours more will give us a complete and glorious triumph.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAMS

Special Despatches to the Evening Mercury.

From San Francisco.

San Francisco, Sept. 5.—Partial return from less than one-half the counties of this State, but including the most populous, show large democratic gains everywhere. The democratic Legislative body in San Francisco and Sacramento is probably elected. This defeats the re-election of Senator Coaners.

From New Orleans.

New Orleans, Sept. 5.—There were deaths from yellow fever during twenty-four hours ending at 6 o'clock this morning.

From Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., Sept. 5th.—Ben Hill writing a series of letters to Gen. Grant in reply to Gen. Pope, in which he asserts that no respectable white man in South Africa of the military bill, constitutional right, just or desirable, the uncanid accept, the candid rejection approve, all despise.

From Galveston.

Galveston, Texas, Sept. 5.—The yellow fever has somewhat abated; the number of deaths yesterday were 17. Gen. G. fin's only child has died. There is one staff officer on duty.

From Mobile.

Mobile, Sept. 5.—Col. N. B. Sheppard who was shot at Mount Vernon arsen a few weeks since, by Capt. Staff, of the United States army, died here to-day the wound received. Staff has been sent to a military commission since Monday. His examination concluded today, but sentence has not been promulgated.

From Charleston.

Charleston, Sept. 5.—At noon to-day Gen. Canby appeared at the district headquarters and formally relieved Gen. Sickles.

Cable News OF TO-DAY.

From Dublin. Dublin, Sept. 5.—Criminal prosecutions have been commenced in the Courts against several persons who are known to be bitter Orangemen, who are charged with participating in the recent disorderly procession of Orangemen, and with being guilty of the disturbances which occurred on those occasions.

From Copenhagen.

Copenhagen, Sept. 5, evening.—The report that the Government of Denmark has sold the Danish India to the West Indies to the United States is officially denied.

From Berlin.

Berlin, Sept. 5th, evening.—Returns of the recent elections, from a parts of Prussia, and from the other States of the Confederation, show the liberal candidates for the North German Parliament have generally been successful, and the liberal party will undoubtedly have a large controlling majority during the coming session of Parliament.

From Baden.

Baden, Sept. 5.—The International Races were continued at Iffesheim. The attendance exceeded even that of the day before, as the contest was to take place for the grand prize offered by the Duke of Baden, and created great interest among the throngs of visitors at Baden. Some of the best horses in Europe were entered for this trial. The race was very closely contested and caused much excitement among the spectators. The Prussian horse Ruy Blas was the winner. His owner takes the grand prize of the Duke of Baden.

STIRTON AND GOW

Poll your votes early on Friday, the 6th of September, before twelve o'clock in the evening, for the Reform Ticket, and vote for STIRTON and GOW.

JAMES STEPHENS

Centre, is still residing in the same place, seemingly distressed, and he is engaged in his connection with the Duke of Baden.