Amalgamation of The Mercury and Advertiser.

Notices of the Press.

We notice with satisfaction the amalgamation of the Guelph Advertiser with The Mescure of that enterprising town indicating, as it does, the consolidation of the entire Reform party in Wellington, but more especially in the South Riding. At one time the Advertiser, under a former management, seemed inclined to follow the lead of that section of the Reform party whom the Hon. W. McDougall and others tried to carry to the standard of Sir John A. Macdonald; but from the course of events it is pretty evident the attempt to change the ablegiance of the "good mea and true" of old Wellington, was a failure. The Mescury AND Advertiser, by this consolidation, will become a power in the centre of a large and wealthy district.— Newmarkt Era.

Newmarket Era.

The Guelph Advertiser has been amalgamated with The Mercuex, and the joint paper will hereafter be styled The Guelph Mercuex and Advertises. The Mercuex under Mr. lunes' management, has prospered amazingly, both the daily and weekly editions enjoying large circulations, and meriting the support so liberally extended to them. We wish the enterprising publisher success in his new venture.—Mount Forest Examiner.

The Gregory Mercuex and Advertiser.

THE GUELPH MERCURY AND Advertiser are amalgameted. Innes now owns oth. The Mercury and Advertiser as the largest circulation of any paper ublished outside the cities.—Brussels

The Guelph Advertiser, after buffeting The Guelph Advertiser, after buffeting the storms of twenty-eight years, has ceased to exist. The Advertiser was the oldest journal in the County of Wellington, but has of late not been on a paying basis. The subscription lists of the defunct concern have been incorporated with those of The Guelph Mercury.—
Woodstock Weekly Review.

Woodstock Weekly Review.

The editor of that staupoh old Reform journal, The Mercury, having purchased the copyright, subscription list, and subscription accounts of the Guelph Advertiser, it will hereafter be amalgamated with The Mercury. The Mercury has long been known as one of the leading and most reliable newspapers of the Province, has attained a very large circuitation, and as a natural consequence has been the recipient of a liberal and increasing advertising patronage. We wish it constant property.—Markham Economist.

The Guelph Advertiser has discontinued publication, and has merged into Tru Muncunx, the preprietor of the latter having purchased the subscribiton list, Mr. Hacking, labored fathfully. against adverse circumstances, and made the Advertiser a first-class paper. He continues vertiser a first-class paper. He continues his job printing establishhment as before —Cobourg World.

The Guelph Advertiser has been merged in The Guelph Advertiser has been merged in The Guelph Mercury, which will hereafter be published as The Mercury and Advertiser by Mr. Innes. The Mercury standing already in the front rank of Ganadian country journals, the addition of the Advertiser's large subscription list to its own will give it an enormous circulation. We wish the new combination that success which it ability and enterprise so deservedly merit.—Milton Champion.

The Guelph Advertiser, (Beform), established in 1845, has ceased publication, and has been amalgamated with The Mercury of that town. The ascendancy to power of the Reform Ministry has evidently had very little to do with the life or death of this ancient supporter of their professed principles. The flight for supremacy now rests with the H-raid and The Mercury.—Cinton Monitor.

THE MERCURY.—Clinton Monitor.

The Guelph Advertiser has, as such, ceased to exist, and has been amalgamated with THE MERCURY, which will henceforth appear as the Guelph MERCURY AND ADVERTISER.—Globe.

Mr. Innes of the Guelph MERCURY has purchased the copyright and subscription list of the Guelph Advertiser, and the two journals will be amalgamated under the name of the MERCURY AND ADVERTISER. This will give the amalgamzated papers a strong position so far as its weekly circulation is concerned.—Spectator.

The Guelph Advertiser has collapsed owing to the hard times, and overdone character of the newspaper business in that burgh.—St. Phongas Times.

We see that Mr. James Innes, proprietor of the Guelph Mercury, has just bought out the weekly subscription list of the Guelph Advertiser, which has added to his own, thus running up the combined circulation to the handsome figure of seven thousand. Mr. Innes has purchased the copyright of the Advertiser, so that he now owns one of the best establishments and most thoroughly thriving journals in the Province. Success to such enterprise.—Daily News, St. Catherines.

CARELESSMESS.—Many persons neglect their horses' health and condition until it is too late, when at a trifling expense; and no trouble the horse might have been saved if attended to in time. To all who may have occasion to use an article of the kind we would confidently recommend "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy;" it is without doubt the best preparation in use, as thousands who have used it testify.
