HALF-HEARTED BURGLAR.—The store of W. C. Wortley, Drayton, was a short time ago entered in the night. OFF THE TRACK.—On Tuesday morning last two freight cars and caboose on the eight o'clock train got off the track about two miles below Harristown station, and were dragged some distance before the train could be stopped. The freight cars were badly broken up, and the caboose was thrown down the embankment, about ten feet deep, lighting bottom side up. Some five passengers, the conductor, and two brakemen were inside, but fortunately no one seriously injured. One of the passengers, Mr. R. M. McQueen, of Palmerston, who received some severe bruises, will likely lay him up for a few days. Andrew Pennington, one of the brakemen, also was hurt. The conductor got off by coming down upon his head instead of his feet. The passengers got out of the caboose through the window, and put the fire out of the stove by throwing snow into it, so that there was no further damage done. The passengers were taken back to Palmerston and attended to by Dr. Stewart, under whose care they are all doing well. Tribune.

A RARE PRESENT.—On Wednesday evening, while Mrs. Boulton of the third concession of Howick was sitting in her house reading, some person knocked at the door. Mrs. Boulton said, "Come in," when the door was gently opened and a large basket shoved into the room. The door was instantly closed again, and the party made off. Mrs. Boulton, being alone, was somewhat startled at first, but after a second thought she went to the door to see who was there, but no one could be seen. She took up the basket, and upon examining its contents, she found a fine healthy looking female child, about six weeks old, snugly cradled up. A further examination brought to light a choice lot of clothing, a note containing ten dollars, with instructions to take good care of the child, and when the money was spent more would be forthcoming. There was also in the basket a small box of sugar, a nursing bottle, full of fresh milk, and one dollar in silver. We understand that the child is a very handsome little thing, and that Mrs. Boulton is quite taken up with it, and will care for it much better than its natural mother could have done. Tribune.

A temperance mass meeting was held in the Bradford Tabernacle on Wednesday night and was a great success. The speakers were the Rev. W. H. Tilley and Mr. Warren Rock, barrister, of London. It is related that a man in Haverstraw U. S., felt so badly about the recent Cuban outrage that he erected a guillotine in his poultry yard and beheaded all his Spanish fowls. If relieved him. dw

Two murderous assaults were committed in London, Ontario, on Wednesday night for the purpose of robbery. These assaults have been common of late. dw

The friends of temperance in London are petitioning the City Council to issue only forty hotel licenses, to abolish saloon licenses, and to prohibit grocers from selling liquor in quantities of less than five gallons. dw

IN THE DAYS WE WENT A CURLING.

BY A LEADING MEMBER OF THE GUELPH CURLING CLUB.

Air: "In the days we went a curling." In the days we went a curling a short while ago. Upon the dam at Hespeler we waited for the game to begin. 'Twas there we spied the Dundas men step quickly from the car. We were all up quite nice, because 'twas come so far. And thus we passed the merry time, No thought of care or woe, In the days we went a curling a long time ago. In the days we went to Hespeler a short while ago.

With hearts quite light and brows held tight, and eager for the fray, Resolved to bring the medal home by honest and fair play. And soon we heard the ship's bold voice ring cheerily through the air, Crying "draw a guard," or "take this wick," or "I just want you there."

Chorus—And thus we passed, &c.

And now the fun was well begun, as anyone might see. With loud hurrahs and swooping up and drawing to the ice. And when the game was ended, the joyful news soon spread, That the good old Union Club from Guelph were seventeen shots ahead.

Chorus—Oh! then we had a glorious time. And should we ever pay a visit to the ice, We'll wish, as Curlers all should do, to have the more keen. Then may we live in unity, and by our actions prove That we are all well worthy of the glorious game we love.

Chorus—And thus we spent the happy time, etc.

Woman's Whiskey War.

Great Fires.

The Rebellious Indians.

Sir Garnet Coming Home.

Sick Cardinals.

London, Feb. 12.

There is considerable speculation as to whether Mr. Disraeli or the Earl of Derby will become Premier.

General Sir Garnet Wolseley has made arrangements for himself and his white troops to leave the Gold Coast of Africa for England on the 1st March.

It is stated that the village of South Windham, Conn., has a case of small-pox in nearly every family, and several deaths have occurred. All business has ceased, and no railway trains stop there.

Rome, Feb. 12.—Cardinals Antonelli and Tarquini are seriously ill. The latter mentioned is one of the Cardinals recently appointed by the Pope.

Vienna, Feb. 12.—The Emperor Joseph left here last evening for St. Petersburg, on a visit to the Czar.

Atchinson, Kansas, Feb. 12.—The Central Block, on Main street, was burned this morning. Loss $8,000.

Memphis, Tenn., Feb. 12.—A despatch from Trenton, Tennessee, says that one-fourth of the public square is in ashes from the fire last night. Sixteen business houses, including New City Hall, were burned. Loss $60,000.

New York, Feb. 13.—The arrival of the steamship Caledonia, from Glasgow, is announced.

A despatch from Cheyenne says that the body of the murdered agent, Appleton, has arrived there. The Indians say they will also kill agent Saville if he does not leave White Clay agency. At Spotted Tail agency an Indian attempted to shoot agent Howard, but was prevented by Black Crow, one of their pickets. A report from Sidney, Nebraska, says that five railroad section men, six miles west of that place, were fired upon by Indians on Thursday. Many stock men have gone out to bring their herds in.

Ripley, Ohio, Feb. 10.—Warren's temperance movement is a fever heat here, and 16 of the 23 saloon keepers have signed the pledge and abandoned the business. Domendin, the wickedest man in the town, has re-appeared, trying in a frantic under-hand way to frustrate the movement. He is a peculiar burlesque, swearing vehemently and drinking hard. The ladies are praying hard for him. A tremendous mass meeting was held last night and another to-night. The ladies visit the boot bars, and are well received and assured that no liquor shall be dispensed at this landing. Without exaggeration it is next to impossible to get a glass of liquor in the place. Saloon keepers swear they won't sell, and dry tapers prove their word by the sadness of their faces. The movement is taking a decidedly religious turn, and is spreading through all the Southern counties and into Indiana.

"Panics and Reversions."

Mr. Hagne, of the Toronto Bank, Toronto, gave a lecture on the above subject in the Congregational Church on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The attendance was small, their being only about forty persons present. The President, Dr. McGuire, occupied the chair, who, before introducing the lecturer, remarked that the small attendance did not speak well for the literary taste of the people of Guelph.

Mr. Hagne on coming forward stated that it was not his intention to deliver an amusing lecture. His sole aim was to say something that might do good and be instructive; and to warn the young men who may be entering business from running against the rocks and quicksands which line the shore of life. He then referred to the panic of 1857, and described the circumstances and scenes connected with it. In these days every one seemed to be rich or getting rich. All that one had to do was to go and speculate on some piece of land,—no matter how poor the land as long as it was land. In the purchase of this all that was required was a few scraps of paper, binding them over to pay the purchase money in ten years. The surveyors and lithographers were then at work. They would draw on this piece of land the plan of an imaginary town, with Market House, Post Office, Bank, nicely laid out streets, and a fine square in the middle in which a fountain was ever scattering its waters around; and to such an extent was this carried on that many an owner already fancied himself a millionaire, and lived accordingly. Land was bought and sold on the strength of these pictures. The wave of excitement still rolled on; a constant rise took place, men making twenty times the amount originally paid for their land. A farm of 100 acres would be divided into lots of an acre each and then subdivided. All this was carried on by long credit, and caused the great amount of indebtedness that ever rested on any country. Still the fever raged higher, for the longer the credit, the higher the prices. All other business was affected by this epidemic, and it pervaded all ranks of society. In 1859 a singular change was visible. In almost every place of business you could see pasted in the windows "To Let" and "Land for Sale," not as before, but for taxes. The prospects of the imaginary town and all its grandeur were suddenly blighted. There was no demand now, and there was no money. All that the speculator had left him now was piles of mortgages, and they only gave him a few miserable swamps. Then came a series of law suits, but while the "big fires" were biting, there were little fires to bite them." Such was the revelation of '55, '56, and '57. The lecturer then referred to the Railway panic of 1845 and '46 in England, and its effects in America in '47; the Joint Stock Bank crisis of 1836, and the crisis of 1866. He did not think it necessary to refer to the late panic in the States as it was yet fresh in the minds of all. In concluding his lecture Mr. Hagne advised the young men never to advance so far that they must go further or be ruined. These reversions were caused by the younger members of firms taking the place of the older, and being impatient to get rich, venturing further than their capital could allow them. He thought it well to hold up this mirror of panics and reversions, as a warning and a lesson for young men. He cautioned them against hastening to be rich. Labour was the sure way of getting wealth; work was the true sphere for man on the earth, and brought its reward. He advised them before going into speculations of any kind to sit down first and duly consider the matter, for failure not only ruined the man but also his character. They ought to keep in remembrance what riches are and are not, and to set their hearts on duty, for 'twas duty that made a man a man. He trusted that every young man present would make duty his guiding star, for "the path of duty was the way to glory."

A vote of thanks was passed to the lecturer, when the meeting dispersed after the doxology had been sung and the benediction pronounced by Mr. Hagne.

Ontario Legislative Assembly.

Toronto, Feb. 12.

Mr. Lauder moved for a return of Orders to Council, correspondence and telegrams relating to the Municipal Loan Fund Re-adjustment Act of last session. He complained of delay in laying this information before the House, and charged the Government with allowing to keep under the authority of the Legislature, the schedules to which assent had been given a year ago.

The Attorney-General rebuked Mr. Lauder for his indiscriminate attack on the actions of the Government, and declared that the recklessness with which the charges of the members for South Grey were made, destroyed any confidence the country might otherwise place in them. He quoted the Act of last session to show that full authority was therein given to the Government to correct any inaccuracies in the appropriations under the Act, and that the House that he had been careful to observe closely the terms of the resolution agreed to by the Legislature on which the Act was subsequently founded. It had been suggested by Mr. Lauder that the settlement with the municipalities in the county of Wellington had been made in order to affect the late elections, but the Attorney-General showed that long before those events transpired, the matter had been in course of settlement.

In reply to Mr. Sinclair, the Treasurer explained under what circumstances the Railway grant was made, and that the municipalities above referred to, and not to the county of Bruce, which at one time was expected to receive it. He showed that the strict letter of the law had been complied with in awarding money to the municipalities in question. Bruce had contributed not to the Wellington, Grey & Bruce Road as a whole, but only to so much of the line as traversed the county itself. Hence it had no claim to the grant in respect of the 48 miles from Guelph to Harristown, in which the municipalities mentioned had therefore participated.

Mr. Currie hoped to see the Act so far amended as to admit of the money distributed to the municipalities being appropriated to school purposes.

The resolution was carried.

Mr. Rykert then moved for a return of Orders in Council and other particulars relating to the Railway Fund and Railway Subsidy Fund, which was agreed to.

Mr. Boulter moved for a return of the sums due as Timber Road Allowances. He complained that these payments had been long in arrears.

Mr. Farlee explained that difficulties had arisen in ascertaining what townships were entitled to the money. He promised the matter should have early attention.

Mr. McManus moved for a return of income and expenditure for 1873, which was carried.

Col. Williams (East Durham) took occasion to repel the late gross insinuation made by the leader of the Opposition, prejudicial to his personal character and honor.

Mr. Bethune's Bill respecting the administration of estates, and Mr. Prince's Bill respecting Line Fences were read a second time and referred to Committee.

Mr. Ardagh's Bill relating to Land Tax sales, after speeches in opposition to the measure from the Attorney-General, and Messrs. Cameron, Deacon and Sexton, was withdrawn. The House then rose.

British Columbia.

Popular Demonstration—Resignation of the Ministry.

The following telegram appears in Friday's Globe:

Victoria, B. C., Feb. 11.—On Monday afternoon, citizens numbering nearly one thousand, marched to the Parliament Buildings, in an orderly manner. A large police force was on hand, but there was no disturbance. Dr. Helmecken presented a petition passed at a public meeting on Saturday, the gist of which was as follows:—"That this meeting deems it inadvisable to enter into any negotiations for capitalizing the dry-dock guarantee, or to borrow any money from the Dominion Government until the scheme of the Mackenzie Ministry for the revision of the terms of union shall be made known; and further, that it is distinctly opposed to the Provincial Government interfering in any manner with the terms, or agreeing to any new terms offered by the Mackenzie Government, until they shall have been submitted to the people for adoption."

A resolution was sent to the city members who support the Government, calling upon them to resign.

The same afternoon Mr. De Cosmos, Premier, resigned, and he has since left the city, it is said, to stand for an outside district for the Commons.

To-day Mr. Walkem, Attorney General in the De Cosmos Ministry, was called by the Governor to form a Government. It is understood he makes no change in his Cabinet.

Considerable excitement still prevails. The House meets on Friday, when the petition will be considered.

The press in opposition to the General Government says nothing but a dissolution will satisfy the country, and charges that the attempt to change the terms of the Union was done to vitiate the railway clause.

A BAP SMASH.—On Wednesday afternoon a dog from the country that had got separated from its master in Fleming & Co's bookstore, Galt, "surveyed" a new route to the street by way of the window, and went through one of the heavy plate glass panes in a twinkling. Owner not known.

LYNX SHOT.—Capt. Bogie, on Monday last, shot a large lynx on his farm in Colborne, 6 miles from Goderich. He was skidding logs in the bush when his dog tumbled the "critter," and he went home got his gun, and shot it. It is a very large specimen of the lynx species, being 3 feet 2 inches long and standing 23 inches high.—Huron Signal.

A WINGED STRANGER.—One day last week Mr. Devitt, of Waterloo, saw a strange bird on the street, apparently bumbled with the cold. He caught it, and it proved to be a sea eagle, a well-known inhabitant of our northern lakes. How it came to wander so far from its accustomed haunts, in this piercing cold weather, is the question. Mr. Devitt's store was visited the next day or two by a good many curious villagers. So sayeth the Waterloo Chronicle.

SIGNIFICANT.—The Hamilton Times says that on Wednesday afternoon a large flock of wild geese was seen flying in a northerly direction over the city. The advent of these migratory birds at this season of the year is generally accepted by weather-wise people as an augury of an early breaking up of the winter. The Hamilton Spectator has also discovered some signs of an early spring. It says that the "robin red-breast" were chirping lively in a garden at the east end of the city on Tuesday.

PRESENTATION AT HOWICK.—On Tuesday evening, Feb. 3rd, about thirty of the children and teachers in connection with the Fordwick Union Sabbath School organized a surprise party, and presented Mr. Snell with a beautiful Family Bible. After the presentation, refreshments were passed around, and a few hours were spent very pleasantly, with singing, reciting, dialogues and short speeches, from Messrs. McCurdy, Mitchell, Johnson and Sweetman. Mr. Joseph Driver occupied the chair.

ABOMINABLE OUTRAGE.—A most outrageous assault was made on a man and his wife, in Ottawa, on Tuesday evening. They have only been residing in Canada a few months, and are said to be a quiet and industrious family. Shortly after they had retired to bed, six drunken roughs drove up, burst in the door, and attacked the proprietor, beating him severely; they then turned their attention to his wife, tore off all her clothes and outraged her person. Her cries and those of her husband attracted the police, who arrested two of the roughs, named McMillen and Taylor.

BURNED TO DEATH.—A poor little orphan of twelve years, brought out by Miss Eyle last year, was burned to death at the residence of Mr. J. A. Alanson, Duke street, Hamilton, last Monday. She was going dinner ready, when her clothes took fire. She was alone, and when her screams brought assistance it was too late; she was so badly burned that she died next morning. The sad event has cast a gloom over Mr. Alanson's household (where deceased was a special favorite), and in the neighbourhood generally.
