THE EVENISM MEETING.

A fair-sized audience composed of members of the Knights of Labor and their friends assembled in the Labor Hall last evening to discuss matters pertaining to the interests of labor organizations. Mr. Joseph Brent, local master of Council No. 3,305, occupied the chair. In the course of a few remarks he said that the Knights were complained of by some people and called a set of grumblers, but they lost sight of the fact that all the improvements that have taken place in years past by which the laboring class were lettered were achieved by grumblers. The Knights have much to grumble at in this city. The condition of things as they would have them is vastly different from what they are now. Suppose a man works 26 years, he should have enough to keep him the remainder of his life, but as he did not receive sufficient funds he must go to the poorhouse or be supported by his friends in his old age.

Mr. A. J. McKay, of Woodstock, was the next speaker. He claimed to be a champion of the laboring class. He was not in sympathy with the people that were always croaking about the good old times, because in his opinion the position of the working classes was much better to-day than ever before. Every champion of the laboring class in the past. He thought that every man going on the downward raad of lie should be in a position to rest, without laboring. Some men will make light of the organization, even when they stituded the benefits that attended properly organized labor, and hoped when he came lack to London again he would be able to see the laboring classes in still better position.

Mr. J. T. Marks followed with a short pithy speech, in which he recommended the organization which capital has secured. He invited attention to the class of men that made the most objection to the existence and operations of the Knights of Labor; and the nost objection to the existence and operations of the Knights of Labor; and the nost invited attention to the class of men that made the most objection to the existence and operations of the Knights of Labor; and then in contrast to look at the ones that support and speak in favor of the Knights. If you cannot find out from comparing these two classes that organization is a proper thing we cannot be moved by anything in reason. The Knights of Labor were opposed to strikes. That the organization was in a prosperous condition was shown by the fact that they had ceased to be persecuted by the press. It has been decided to issue a paper for this district to educate all classes on the labor question, in and it is thought that the paper will put in an appearance in about a year.

an appearance in about a year.

Mr. W. J. Shaw, of St. Thomas, was Mr. W. J. Shaw, of St. Thomas, was then called upon. He said there is a great diversity among the people of to-day. We have the abject poor and the immensely cich, and the object of the Knights of Labor is to make industrial worth, not wealth, the standard of moral greatness, which was far from being the case at present. Unfortunately some of the professed Knights will not be guided by this prinziple, and so they weaken the cause. "To piple, and so they weaken the cause. A man who simpl has as much interest in any the man who owns properly simple matter for any man property and leave the all simple matter for any man to dispose of his property and leave the place, and even if he cannot sell he can better afford to leave the poor man, who has no property. There is no property qualification necessary for a school trustee, yet little or no fault is found with the school trustee. The speaker was in favor of the scheme for shorter hours, because in would result in the employment of more men, and then the job would seek the man instead of the man seeking the position, and because if the short hour principle were adopted it would have a tendency to increase wages. There is another thing that causes as much displacement of the labor of men as does the machine, and this is women, who have entered the field, and because of the cheapness of their labor they drive out male labor. If female labor was organized it would greatly mitigate the evil. Another thing that would help the cause of labor in this matter would be the enfranchisement of women. If a Knight goes into a salon of women. INDUSTRIAL INTERESTS. Meeting of District No. 138, this matter would be the enfranchisement of women. If a Knight goes into a saloon he is belying his principles and does not keep his obligations. As a workingman the speaker protested against the profits of labor going to support the saloon-keeper, who is a non-producer. Workingmen should never carry any such dead weight.

Mr. A. B. Ingram, M.P.P., of St. Thomas, was then called upon. He stated that in many assemblies in the city they would find men assuming to the leadership, who have not given the question sufficient Practical Suggestions by Practical would find men assuming to the leadership, who have not given the question sufficient study, when there are many in the background that have made a life study of the labor problem. You that have sat in the background, soid he, are shirking a duty in not coming out and correcting the many mistakes that these presumptuous individuals make, and these men in turn are answerable to the working men at large for the many errors which ignorance with the labor question creates. The speaker was not opposed to labor-saving machinery. He believed God placed the dumb animals on earth to do the heavy work, and not that men should work over long hours, and have their children deprived of proper tuition which they should receive in the schools. He held that if the work is manufactured, it matters not how, the workers should dein a stirring speech urged all to give their best attention to the business of the session, and especially welcomed the new delegates.

Bro. Joseph Thomas made a pointed speech in erplanation of a scheme he had to start a labor paper, under the direction of District Assembly 138.

Bro. McKey, of Woodstock, strongly supported Bro. Thomas' proposal, and the following were appointed a committee to take the necessary steps to start the enterprise:

J. T. Marks, O. E. Light, Joseph Brent and W. J. McKay.

The District Master Workman was instructed to submit a series of questions of importance to labor organizations for discussion in local assemblies, so as to get a simultaneous discussion. After the vote is taken the result is to be sent to the Secretary-Treasurer.

The District Secretary was instructed to correspond with the General Secretary of the Farmers' Alliance with a view to get the farmers of the district to organize in now working in co-operation with the Moyement. Co-operation female suffrage and female organizations were discussed and referred to the local assemblies for an expression of their views.

The commissions of organizers having expired new selections were made, giving one to London. The following officers were then elected for the year. J. T. Marks, D. M. W.; J. W. McKay, D. W. F.; W. J. Shaw, Sc. Treas, tre-elected).

London, St. Thomas, Woodstock and Port Eurwell were named for the next place of meeting, with the chances in favor of London, it being the most central.

A Dinner Pill.—Many persons suffer excruciating agony after partaking of a hearty dinner. The food partaken of is like a hall of lead upon the stomach, and instead of being a healthy nutriment it becomes a poison to the sytem. Dr. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are wonde rful correctives of such troubles. They correct acidity, open the secretions and conver the food partaken of into healthy nutriment. They are just the medicine to take if troubled with Indigestion or Dyspepsia.
