Opinion of Local W. C. T. U. Members Regarding Bishop

Potter's Saloon. The New York subway saloon, recently dedicated by Bishop Potter, was the subject of some discussion at the meeting of the W. C. T.U. on Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Thornley opened the discussion, giving a history of the bishop himself, who she said, was at one time the president of the Total Abstinence Union but that time had gone by. Gradually the bishop had been getting away from his principles as he was entertined by the millionaires of New York. The crisis came when the bishop, returning from the old country, brought back enough Scotch whisky to have to pay $40 duty. Somebody else was appointed president and gradually the bishop
