THE IMPORTANT GRAND

SPRING OPENING OF

Millinery

Ladies' Suits, Coats, Skirts,

Dress Goods, Silks and Dress

Trimmings and Also Spring

Merchandise Generally

Throughout the Entire Store.

Danger next door Perhaps its diphtheria or scarlet fever. Keep your own home free from the germs of these diseases. Preventyour children from having them. You can do it with our Vapo-Cresolene. Put some Cresolene in our vaporizer, light the lamp beneath, and let the vapor fill the sleeping room. Have the children perfectly safe, yet not a single disease germ can live in this vapor.

Ask your doctor about it.

Ask your doctor about it.

Thiow that it was based on revenge, the cause of which also is a mystery. If only the prince were here!"

"He will come; youth will be youth."

"Perhaps."

[Cepyrighted by the Bowen-Merrill waste basket. Company, Indianapolis.]

paid, and all signs of discontent abated. The duchess can do nothing but replace von Rumph. The marshal is a straw in the wind; von Wallenstein and Mollendorf, I hold a sword above their necks. Nearly half the Diet is with us. There has been some strange meddling in the customs, Eng-strange meddling in the customs. Engishmen have brought me complaints, through the British legation, regarding chancellor is a man to be respected, such inspections as were never before whatever his beliefs. I warned you liquidate the debt, what matters it if heard of in a country at peace. I and Mollendorf of the police what the the Englishman comes? It is all one heard of in a country at peace. I consulted the chief inspector and he affirmed the matter. It appears to me that a certain Englishman is to be kept out of the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone is more so since the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he practically stands alone is more so since the country for reasons he practically stands alone. In games the country for reasons he country for reasons he practically stands alone. The chancellor has any the country for reasons he country for rea well known to us. I have suspended of chance one always should play close. police power over the customs. Ah, Sire if you would but agree with Mon"I have waited six years." Sire if you would but agree with Mon-seignor to dismiss the cabinet."

"It is too late," said the king. cuirassiers, who in authority stands between the marshal and General Kronau. I fear him. Why? Instinct. He is too well informed of my projects for one thing; he laughs when suggest in military affairs. Who is A Frenchman, if one may trust

'All men are honest in your majesty's eyes," said the archbishop. "All save the man within me," replied the king.

At this juncture the king's old valet came in with the evening meal; and soon after the prelate and the chanwithdrew from the chamber. "How long will he live?" asked the year; perhaps only till tomorrow. Ah, had he but listened to me several years ago, all this would not have come to pass. He would see nothing; he persisted in dreams. With the death of Josef he was convinced that his enemies had ceased to be. Had listened, I should have dismissed the cabinet, and found enough young blood to answer my purposes; I should have surrounded him with a mercenary army 2,000 strong; by now should have stood strongly entrenched.

Indigestion?

I offer all Stomach Sufferers a Full Dollar' Worth of my Remedy Free to Try.

worth free, because mine is no ordinary remedy. Ordinary remedies treat symp-toms. My remedy treats the causes that produce the symptoms. Symptom treatment must be kept up forever—as long as the cause is there. My treatment may be stopped as soon as it has removed the cause, for that is always the end of

I can afford to offer a full dollar's

Stomach trouble is not really a sickness, but a symptom. It is a symptom that a certain set of nerves is ailing. Not the voluntary nerves that enable you to walk and talk and act—but the utomatic stomach nerves over which your mind has no control.

I have not room here to explain how these tender, tiny nerves control and operate the stomach. How worry breaks them down and causes indigestion. How misuse wears them out and causes dyspepsia. How neglect may bring on kid-ney, heart and other troubles through sympathy. I have not room to explain how these nerves may be reached and strengthened and vitalized and made well fecting-now known by druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. I have not room to explain how this remedy, by removing the cause, puts a certain end to indigestion, belching, heartburn, insomnia, nervousness, dyspepsia. All of these things are fully explained in the book I will send you when

In more than a million homes my remedy is known. It has cured stomach troubles not once, but repeatedly—over and over again. Yet you may not have heard of it—or, hearing, may have delayed or doubted. So I make this offer to you, a stranger, that every possible excuse for doubt may be removed. Send me no morey—make me no promise—take no no money—make me no promise—take no risk. Simply write and ask. If you have not tried my remedy, I will send you an order on your druggist for a full dollar bottle—not a sample, but the regular standard bottle he keeps constantly on his shelves. The druggist will require no conditions. He will accept my order as cheerfully as though your dollar laid before him. He will send the bill to me. Will you accept this opportunity to learn Will you accept this opportunity to learn at my expense absolutely, how to be rid forever of all forms of stomach troubles —to be rid not only of the trouble, but f the very cause which produced it?

For a free order for a full Book 1 on Dyspepsia.
dollar bottle you Book 2 on the Heart. must address Dr. Book 3 on the Kidneys.
Shoop, Box 41, Book 4 for Women.
Racine, Wis. Book 5 for Men.
State which Book 6 on Rheumatism.

and I were permitted to do nothing. Where is the prosperity of which we formerly boasted? I, too, hear crumbling walls. Yet, the son of this Englishman, whose strange freak is still unaccountable, will come at the appointed time; I know the race. He will renew the loan for another ten years. What a fancy! Lord Fitzgerald was an eccentric man. Given a purpose, he pursued it to the end, neither love nor friendship, nor fear swerved him. Do you know that he made a "And I have waited fourteen."

"Well, then, I shall pass into the active. I shall watch this Englishman myself. He is likely to prove the agent. Count, the time for waiting is gone. If the debt is liquidated or renewed—and there is Prince Frederick to keep in mind—we shall have played and lost. Disgrace for you; for mewell, perhaps there is a power behind me too strong. The chancellor? Pouf! I have no fear of him. But you who laugh at the archbishop—" him. Do you know that he made a vow that Duke Josef should never sit on this throne, nor his descendants? What were five millions to him, if in giving them he realized the end? The why? He is waiting for the curtain sleeping room. Have the children king would never explain the true to rise. Nothing escapes him; he is sleep in the room every night, for it's cause of this Englishman's folly, but letting us go to what end we will, to rise the room every night, for it's table to research the room every night, for it's cause of this Englishman's folly, but letting us go to what end we will, to rise the room every night, for it's cause of this Englishman's folly, but letting us go to what end we will, only, if we do not act at once, to draw

"You have never been young."
"Not in that particular sense to which you refer," dryly.

In the chamber of finance Colonel Beauvals leaned over the desk and persued the writing on a slip of paper which the minister had given him. Enough daylight remained to permit the letters to stand out legibly. When he had done the sleened to be the letters to stand out legibly. he had done the colonel tossed back the missive, and the minister tore it into shreds and dropped them into the vais. "The spy, who has eaten up 10,-000 crowns, is not worth his salt. He "Sire, it is fairly quiet in the lower two days, been his guide in the hills, and all signs of discontent of the customs is a farce."

We are crossing a character way; as we cannot go around him, we, being the stronger, push him aside, Eh?" has watched this man Hamilton for mustache. "I warned you against this. The us to a sudden halt. Now to this meddling Englishman; we have offered him a million—five millions for four. He laughs. He is a millionaire. With characteristic bombast he declares that money has no charms. For six months, since his father's death, we have hounded him, in vain. something I cannot understand. What is Leopold to these Englishmen that they risk a princely fortune to secure him his throne? Friendship? Bah, there is none." "Not in France nor in Austria. But this man was an Englishman; they leave legacies of friendship." The colonel walked to the window and looked down into the gardens. He "So much for your pains," said Beau- remained there for a time. Von Wallenstein eyed him curiously. Presently the soldier returned to his seat, "You would not kill-" began the minister. "Let us use the French meaning of the word 'suppress.' And why not? Ambition, wherever it goes, leaves a trail of blood. What is a human life in this game we play? A leaf, a grain liquidate the debt, what matters it if lenstein, slyly.

"There is only one flaw," continued the chancellor. "This flaw is Colonel Beauvais, chief in command of the chirassiers who in command of the Race Tracks on Saturday

he? A Frenchman, if one may trust to a name; an Austrian, if one may trust from whence he came, recommended by the Premier himself. He homebred stock cut quite a name and under a name and the lead at the last mile, but Grafter outlasted him. Grafter arrived at Oakland at 11 o'clock in the morning, after being in a baggage car entered the cuirassiers as a captain. second in the first race and Fair Ca- 36 hours. You yourself, Sire, made him what he lypso, backed from 25 to 1 to 17 to 1, is—the real military adviser of the kingdom. But what of his past? No one knows, unless it be von Wallenstein, his intimate. I, for one, while the content of the content o I may be wrong, trust only those plenty of trade, and while four favor-whose past I know, and even then ites were downed, most of the winners were strongly played. The point of "Colonel Beauvais?" murmured the interest centered in the six-furlong king. "I am sure that you are un- handicap. Ram's Horn was withdrawn, justly suspicious. How many times which left the race between Escaptured the fifth race on Van Ness. taught Alexia a thousand tricks of Hortensia and Maltster, the last being New York, March 19.—Following a horse, so that today she rides as no other woman in the kingdom rides. The outsider of the out Would that I stood half so straight mer slightly in demand. Watkin's colt was backed from evens to 9 to 10, while lessly. He is the first soldier in the Invincible went from 3 to 1 to 13 to 5. The race was a pretty one and uncertain to the last sixteenth, when Invincible, which had been making all

25-TO-1 SHOT WON.

Three favorites won at the City Park, New Orleans, and nearly all the non-favorite winners were well played. Ad High ran away and threw his rider. Then, at 25 to 1, he won the second race in a drive, Kernel, the winner of the first, and Recreo, which won the closing event, were heavily played. WHERE STAYING POWER COUNTED. The Thornton Stake at four miles, which did not promise much, proved to be one of the most spectacular longdistance races ever seen at Oakland. San Francisco, and was won by Grafer, an extreme outsider. He was 16 to 1 in the betting at one time. Flying Torpedo led for over two miles, when Horatius and Grafter took up the running. Veterano lasted for three cheo miles, caught his field and turned into Hal.

Chris J. Fitzgerald, of this city, who has been prominently connected with the race tracks of the United States for several years, and won the respect of owners and jockeys alike from coast to coast, made his last appearance as a starter on Saturday, when he officiated at the Crescent City track, New Orleans. The departure of Mr. Fitzgerald from the starter's stand is a loss to racing, which is generally conceded, for no starter has more faithfully performed his duties. On Saturday evening, he left for his home in some time with his parents, Dr.

and Mrs, Fitzgerald, and other relatives, before leaving for New York, where he will manage the

Brighton Beach Racing Associa-

DEATH KNELL RUNG

No More Three-in-Five Heat

Races on the Detroit

Track.

Apparently the death knell has been rung on the old style racing system of three in five heats, as far as the Detroit track is concerned, at least. This season notning will be attempted at the Grosse Pointe track by the three-heat system,

ON OLD SYSTEM

tion and a breeding farm,

this city, where he will spend

Homebred stock cut quite a figure at the stretch in the lead at the last mile,

FAVORITES' DAY, The feature at Ascot Park. Los Angeles, was won by Lord of the Heath, Favorites captured four races. HILDEBRAND'S GOOD WORK. At Hot Springs, Ark., the clever jockey, Hildebrand, rode winners in three of the six races, and finished in the money in two others. Otto Wonderly

New York, March 19 .- Following are the weights for the Metropolitan handicap $10,000 added, to be run at the spring meeting of the Westchester Racing Association at Belmont Park Hermis 129, Irish Lad 127, Ortwells, Delpi, Stalwart, 124; Beldame 122, Goldsmith 119, Lord of the Vale 118, First Mason 117, Dolly Spanker 114, Colonial Girl 111, Adbell 108, Rose Ben. the running, began to tire and Aubuchon brought Escutcheon forward with a Synsonby, 107; Leonidas, Baker's Watburst, winning by half a length. Mayor Johnson was third, three lengths beers, 105; Ormonde's Right, Knight Errant, Israelite, Montereson, 104; Jacquin, Artful, Oxford, 100; Tanya, Little Em, 99; Wotan 98, St. Bellane, Woodsaw, Lord Badge, 97; Coy Maid, Pasadena, 96; Kepalia, Martinamas, Bel-95; Rose of Dawn, Sig Light, 93; Marjoram, Merry Lark, 92; Santa Catalina, Chieftain, Incantation, Race King, 90; Behemia, 88; Palette, Sir Bril-

SATURDAY'S WINNERS. At Los Angeles-Chalk Hedrick, Ferro Santa, Fireball, Lord of the Heath, Work-At Hot Springs-Paul Jones, Pretty Nellie, Falernian, Glisten, Van Ness,

At San Francisco-Frank Pearce, Red ross Nurse, Dusty Miller, Grafter, ligrette, Celeres. At City Park, New Orleans-Kernel, Ad High, Libation, Pretension, Soundly, Thespian, Recreo. At Louisiana Club's track, New Orleans
-Simplicity, Calypso, Royal Arms, Escuttheon, Misanthropic, J. W. O'Neil, Old

BRITISHERS HAVE STARTER FITZGERALD'S LAST APPEARANCE SNAP WITH YANKS

Fourth Day of International Tourney Very Unfavorable to Americans.

Boston, Mass., March 18 .-- This has been bad day for the American checker con-estants, and when play in the international tournament was concluded the Britishers had added ten games to their winnings, while their opponents had secured but two games. The total score tonight was: Britishers 36, Americans 16, drawn 108.
Play will be resumed on Monday after-

The exciting game between Stewart, the champion of Scotland, and Dearborn, of the American team, which was not con-cluded until early this morning, created additional interest today in the progress of the tournament. The experts who witnessed the Stewart Dearborn match declared it one of the nost interesting and scientific games ever played here, the victory going to Stewart after he had kinged his only man on an exchange from his opponent, which the latter granted in the hope of reaching a drawn game. After this the match was worn by the Scattick charging to the state of the state drawn game. After this the match was won by the Scottish champion at the end of eighteen moves. The British team went into today's play with a pronounced advantage in points, their total score being 26 to 14 for the Americans.

The fourth day's results were: British 10, Americans 2, drawn 28.

Total score: British 36, American 16. drawn 108.

THE RING.

BIG FELLOWS MATCHED, San Francisco, Cal., March 18. - The Houghton; left wing, Gardner, Calutwenty-round glove contest between Marvin Hart, of Louisville, Ky., and Jack Johnson, of Los Angeles, will take place in this city on March 23. For a free order for a full dollar bottle you Book 1 on Dyspepsia. Book 2 on the Heart. Book 3 on the Kidneys. Shoop, Box 41, Book 4 for Women. Racine, Wis. Book 5 for Men. State which hook you want.

Mild cases are often cured by a single bottle. For sale at forty thousand drug stores.

Pointe track by the three-heat system, every heat a race, which has been creating endless discussion among horsemen for the past few months; in fact, every heat a race, which has been creating endless discussion among horsemen for the past few months; in fact, every heat a race, which has been creating endless discussion among horsemen for the past few months; in fact, every heat a race, which has been creating endless discussion among horsemen for the past few months; in fact, every heat a race, which has been creating endless discussion among horsemen for the past few months; in fact, every heat a race, which has been creating endless discussion among horsemen for the past few months; in fact, every heat a race, which has been creating endless discussion among horsemen for the past few months; in fact, every heat a race, which has been creating endless discussion among horsemen for the vorld's heavy-weight title hinged on the result. Up to date there has been no betting on the match. Out at the Ocean Beach not a morning passes that Hart does not cover eight miles on the road. The big Kentuckian seems to enjoy his work and the more difficult the task the more he smiles.

RICE GOT DECISION. Both men are preparing for the battle has signed He remains at his home here and does not know when he will join the team VON DER HORST RETIRES. New York, March 18 .-- After having been a dominating factor in baseball for almost a quarter of a century as owner of the Baltimore Club and as one of the majority owners of the Brooklyn Club, Harry R. Von der Horst, of Baltimore, yesterday retired from active connection with the game. Because of ill-health Von der Horst in future simply will be a passive figure in baseball, although nominally he will continue as secretary and a director of the Brooklyn organization, TERIAL.

MONTREAL AFTER GOOD MA-Montreal is after the services of Pitcher Jack Cronin, who, with Infielder Babb, was traded by New York to Brooklyn for Shortstop Dahlen. Cronin would probably be a tower of strength in the Eastern League, but it is not likely Brooklyn will let him go. It is said that Manager Jimmy Bannon has offered a good price for him. Montreal is sparing no efforts to turn out a first-division team in the Eastern League this season. The Royals lost the services of First Baseman Clancy and Shortstop Yeager, but have been strengthened by the addition of several others.

HEMPHILL WILL NOT SIGN. Charles Hemphill, at one time a fielder for the Londons, has received his contract from the Saint Paul team. but has not signed it on account of difference of opinion with the Saint Paul Club in regard to salary. He is now trying to reach an agreement with Saint Paul and as soon as the two come to terms he will leave for Hot Springs. LACROSSE.

WILL HAVE JUNIOR TEAM. Woodstock, March 17. - Woodstock almost intact, and there is a bunch of they will be changed from time to promising new candidates. Murray, of time. Saturday's scores were: last season's Drumbo team: Ed LaRose | Class A, 22 birds, 19 yards—Screaton and Ambrose DeGray, of the Wood- 18, Breckon 16, Webb 16. stock hockey 'team, and a couple of | Class B, 23 birds, 18 yards-Reid 15 other new men are expected to strengthen the team materially. Cory Class C, 24 birds, 17 yards—Bissett Hess will keep an eye on the boys, and 16, Bowman 18, Smoothy 12, Hughes 19, the outlook is more encouraging than for years. The players will meet soon to organize

SPRINTING. DUFFY A WINNER.

Wellington, New Zealand, March 17.

CITY CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES CALLED OFF

Local hockey enthusiasts will be sorry to learn that the series arranged between the Lornes and the Imperials for the championship of the city, has been canceled. The Lornes found it impossible to put a good team of on the ice, it is said, owing to a number of their players being injured, and for this reason they decided to withdraw. The Lornes are only juniors, and while they captured the championship their league, they did not feel inclined to face the senior Imperials with a crippled aggregajiu-jitsu, and the American pinned the Jap's shoulders to the mat in two minutes and ten seconds. The second fall was catch-as-catch-can, and Baptiste gained the decision in 'two min-

Chicago, March 18.-John Rooney, of Chicago, defeated Jim Parr, the English champion, in their wrestling match here tonight.

ANOTHER SHOOT FOR LA FAMA CUPS

Another of the series of shoots for the La Fama cups presented to the Springwood Gun Club by Mr. A. Erener, was held at the club grounds on Saturday. The competition, howvember, monthly shoots being held in the meantime. The members are will have a C. L. A. junior team the divided into classes, but according to coming season. Last season's team is the scores made at the different shoots Class D, 27 birds, 16 yards—Stone 16. Extra event, 25 birds—Glover 21, Day 21, Smith 15, Webb 16.

Pneumonia.

Old people and those who have weak -Arthur Duffy won the 100-yard cham- lungs cannot be too careful in guarding pionship race here today in 10 2-5 sec- against this disease. Pneumonia alwas making inroads into the talent of the National, Wagner was offered $15,the National, Wagner was offered $15,-Dr. Shoop's

| Birot Little-Line | Little-Li

FIGHTER BOWKER WAS LEFT BEHIND

Mitchell Would Not Bring Him Because of His Defeat by Moran.

New York, March 19. - Jabez White, who is matched to fight Jimmy Britt for the light-weight championship of the world.arrived here today on the big liner Cedric. A large delegation of sporting men, most of then friends of Charley Mitchell, who is White's manager, met and welcomed the aspirant for the universal title.

Joe Bowker, who was reported to have sailed with White and Mitchell, was not on board. Mitchell stated that he did not bring Bowker because o the latter's defeat at the hands of Owen Moran, Mitchell stated, however, that Moran would come over here any time O'Rourke desired. Moran is the little fighter that .loe

Gans picked out as a comer and suggested that O'Rourke send for. No other pugilistic or sporting lights sailed on the ship except White and Mitchell. O'Rourke had planned taking White to Boston and have him second Kid Taylor, the hard-hitting Chicago bantamweight, who will make his first appearance in New England tonight, with Rouse O'Brien, of South Boston for fifteen rounds, before the Douglas A. C., of Chelsea, Mass., but his plans have fallen through. White's coming was the cause for general gossip last night as to his chances with Britt. The concensus of opinion was that Britt would win, but it was generally agreed that he have to be at his best to do it. White is a remarkable ring general, and one of the coolest propositions that ever donned gloves. He showed that when he bested Spike Sullivan in their Coronation bout in June, 1902. For fifteen rounds Spike tried rush Jabe with his accustomed dash, but the little Englishman was like a flash on his feet and sprinted around the ring when Spike tried to corner As he slipped away his left coutinually visited Spikes' face. In the ninth round, when White floored his rival with a neatly-executed right, he assisted Spike to rise.

These are only some of White's char acteristics, but because he is a clean fighter is no sign that he can't use steam. With all his cleverness he has an ever-telling punch. All of these qualities White is bringing here to use

WEDNESDAY

OF THIS WEEK.

CPRING OPENING TIME is here once more and with it a showing that rivals two fold in beauty and variety any showing we ever made. You will marvel at our superb showing of magnificent Millinery-flowers, flowers, flowers and more flowers, making every hat "a thing of beauty and a joy to the wearer."

Elegant Ready-for-Service Garments, Dress Goods and Silks for Spring and Easter Gowns, beautiful, new Trimmings, Laces, Gloves and Handkerchiefs. It's springtime all over the store—every corner is worthy of a visit.

We respectfully invite your attendance at our Opening

JOHN H. CHAPMAN & CO

126, 128, 1281 Dundas Street.

GOTCH SAYS HE IS NOT DOWN FOR LONG

Frank Gotch, the Iowa wres-tler who was on Wednesday defeated by Tom Jenkins, in a match for the championship, says he is not down to stay. 'From the way I feel now," said Gotch at New York, "I do not think I will make any match after the engagements of next week for a month or more. Certainly, I do not wish to perform for New York unless it is in a big match such as Hacken schmidt or Jenkins. I have lost this opportunity, but you will not see me down very long." It was suggested to Gotch that he might meet Jenkins in some other city, preferably Buffalo. He declared that, having met defeat in New York, he could hardly gain the credit for a possible victory over Jenkins if accomplished in any other city. "I want to meet Jenkins in New

0000000000000000000000000 TIE GAME CLOSES SEASON AT TORONTO

Wednesday night.

York and I want to defeat him right here," said he in Madison

Square Garden, after losing on

Toronto, March 18 .- The hockey seaon in this city closed tonight, when the Rat Portage seven and a picked team, representing Toronto's best players, clashed on honeycombed ice in the Mutual Rink. The soft ice prevented the possibility of first-class hockey when the Stanley cup challengers lined up. The score was a tie-7 all.

The Pittsburg Gazette makes this selection for an all-star team from the professional league: Goal, Winchester, Pittsburg; point, Gibson, Houghton; cover point, Hod Stuart, Calumet; center, Mallin, Calumet; rover, A. Sixsmith, Pittsburg; right wing, Liffiton, BASEBALL. WHY WAGNER BALKS.

Pittsburg, Pa., March 18. - The trouole between President Dreyfuss, of the ittsburg Baseball Club and Hans Wagner, the star player, leaked out today. When the American League