

L.C. NIGHT CLASSES TO BE HELD THIS YEAR

Fees Are To Be Raised One Dollar For Matriculation Students.

Evening matriculation classes will again be held at the Central Collegiate Institute this year. Decision to carry on, with higher fees, was reached by the board of education at their fortnightly session yesterday afternoon. The change of mind came on the plea of Rev. R. D. Mess, who thought night students were more anxious to get tuition than they were to secure instruction at less than cost.

Decision had been reached at a previous meeting to discontinue the evening classes. Principal E. A. Miller of the Central Collegiate stated that the classes had been held for more than 15 years, always operating at a loss.

Mr. Miller stated that last year 66 per cent of the papers written on examiners. Improvement this year resulted in 75 per cent passes. Trustee Wright suggested that the classes had never been intended for the masses and that the motion of Trustee Mess and Trustee Mrs. J. I. A. Hunt it was agreed to continue the classes charging $2.50 per week in place of the previous fee of $2.50. Trustee Mrs. J. A. Rose was the only dissenter.

Congestion in the Ealing school district came in for some pointed remarks and the board disallowed a protest from 21 petitioners who objected to their children attending Trafalgar school.

"There is no doubt about it, the building of Trafalgar school was a mistake," declared Trustee Mess. "It goes to be a thorn in the side of the board for years to come."

Administrator Whelan explained that around Ealing school growth had been very rapid in recent years, and it had been found necessary to send pupils to other schools or else find additional accommodation at Ealing.

Trustee Wright claimed that "people living opposite Ealing school are sore because their children are sent to Trafalgar."

Trustee Campbell defended the erection of Trafalgar school.

BOUNDARY COMMITTEE MEETS ON MONDAY

Important Matters To Be Dealt With By Middlesex Presbytery Members.

Rev. W. E. Millson will preside at the special meeting of the boundaries and ministers' committee appointed last week by the Middlesex United Church Presbytery to be held in Metropolitan church Monday morning. Several important matters in the arrangement of United church branches within the presbytery will receive the attention of the committee, the secretary of which is Rev. Murray C. Tait, Glenora.

The London Presbyterial council, of which Rev. W. R. McIntosh, D.D., King street, is the president, will meet earlier in the morning at First Presbyterian United church for the purpose of disbanding. The feeling is that the work previously carried on by the council, composed of both ministers and laymen, in assisting weaker Presbyterian congregations in the city and district will be taken care of by a new association to be formed in the United church and by means of the Middlesex Presbytery extending funds.

In the evening there will be a meeting of laymen and ministers in Metropolitan church, with John Elliott in the chair for the preliminary organization, for the purpose of forming a city association to assist weaker branches of the United church here.

CALL FIVE WITNESSES IN DEMURT INQUEST

Probe Into Death of Kitchener Lineman Will Be Held Tonight.

The inquest into the death of Edward Demurt, Kitchener lineman, electrocuted while working on hydro-electric power lines in London town-ship last Tuesday morning, will be held at the court house tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Five witnesses have been summoned to attend the inquest by High Constable Wharton. Dr. Cameron Wilson is the coroner. The witnesses will be questioned by Crown Attorney Albert M. Judd.

QUALITY OF LAMBS FOR MARKET MUCH IMPROVED

S. E. Todd, secretary of the industrial development of Canadian meat packers, writing to R. A. Finn of the department of agriculture states that there has been a marked improvement in the quality of lambs marketed this year, this betterment being reflected in higher prices to the farmer.

Mr. Todd points out that the market calls for a lamb dressing from 35 to 40 pounds in other words an animal that will finish 80 to 90 pounds at the farm. He advocates the marketing finished lambs at this weight, rather than waiting for a large shipment of overweight stuff.

MOTORIST SLOWED UP, NO CHARGE TO BE LAID

After an investigation into the details, the police have decided to lay no charge against Emmanuel Webb for failing to stop after an accident. The car of Mr. Webb's yesterday struck Murray Stevenson, but he was uninjured. Mr. Webb slowed up, but when the boy jumped up unhurt, he proceeded on his way.

R. H. CULLIS DIES IN HIS 69TH YEAR

Prominent Resident of South London Succumbs to Long Illness.

Richard Herbert Cullis, a well-known resident and businessman of this city, died last night at his home, 177 Wortley road. He had been failing in health for several years, and two years ago went to the Mayo hospital in Baltimore for treatment, returning to his home five months later. He was in his 69th year.

Moving to this city 35 years ago, Mr. Cullis opened a grocery business here under the name of R. H. Cullis & Son, on Wellington street, which he operated for quite a time. Later he entered the real estate business, spending a considerable period in it. Before his coming to London he lived in Auburn, Huron county, where he operated a large flour mill.

He was the son of St. James' church, 299, A. F. & A. M. here for the past 25 years, and was one of the oldest members of the local lodge. Previous to his coming to this city he was connected with the Masonic order for a number of years. In politics he was a staunch Liberal.

He was a member of St. James' Anglican church in South London, having served in the office of warden there for a number of years.

Besides his widow, Emily M. Cullis, one son, Herbert A., one daughter, Frances E., both of this city, and three brothers, A. E. Cullis, Sault Ste. Marie; C. E. Cullis, Vancouver, B. C.; and Harry Cullis of Vassar, Mich., survive him.

The funeral services will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and will be under Masonic auspices, with Rev. Canon Hill officiating. The Rev. Canon Hill officiating. The Rev. Canon Hill officiating. The Rev. Canon Hill officiating.
