WESTERN ONTARIO GIRLS' RALLY HERE

Will Hold Three-Day Conference in London, November 20 to 22.

Local arrangements for the coming rally of the girls of Western Ontario were made at a meeting of the London Girls' Work Board, held last night at the home of Mrs. John Detwiler, the president. Miss Jessie Macpherson, provincial girls' work secretary and Miss Helen d'Aignon, girls work secretary for London, were present to help in making plans for the coming gathering in London. The rally is being held under the which are being held under the direction of the Provincial Girls' Work Board, and is one of three, which are being held in Ontario this autumn. The dates for the London rolly bore by rally have been set as November 20, 21 and 22. Other rallies will be held in Toronto and Ottawa.

For 150 Groups.

For 150 Groups.

This rally, which wil take in all of the registered C. G. I. T. groups of the district, of which there are about 150, is the first of its kind ever held in Canada, Miss Jessie Macpherson, Ontario Girls' Work secretary, Miss Mary Allison, Dominion girls' work secertary and Miss Bona Mills, girls' work secretary of the United church will be in attendance and take part

Mrs. John Detwiler, president of the London Girls' Work Board, and Miss Helen d'Avignon, London Girl's Work secretary, and their committees will have charge of the local arrangements for the rally. Miss Ada Menhennick is on the supper committee and Miss Doris Werner for the

The rally begins with an open meeting on Friday night, fellewed on Saturday morning with group conferences, to be conducted by ten girls, chosen by the London Girls Cabinet. Saturday afternoon will be given over to some sort of entertainnent or drive, followed by a banquet. Saturday evening will be devoted to missions, with Miss Bona Mills, in charge, A missionary pageant will be presented, illustrating her talk.

Billets Arranged.

Miss Mary Allison is to speak to the girls on Sunday, ending the conference. Girls will come to London from all over Western Ontario for the event, and local billets are being arranged.

The local Girls' Work Board is also planning an intensive training course for leaders to be held on October 22, 23 and 24, 26, 27 and 28. The course is to be given in two sections, one for prospective girl leaders and the other for experienced leaders, the latter to be given over to the psychology of adolescence. The classes of Mrs. John Detwiler, Miss Helen d'Avignon and Miss Eleanor Grant. ranged from five to twelve years in Previous to the meeting, Mrs. Det-

CLUB NEWS

CENTRAL W. C. T. U.

Mrs. H. J. Childs, of the Wright ion of the W. C. T. U., is address WARD 3 W. C. T. U.

Mrs. A. E. Tutt and Mrs. M. Hawken will give reports on the W. C. T. U. provincial convention held recentin Pembroke, at the regular meeting of the Ward 3 W. C. T. U., being held in the Trinity (Hale United church, tomorrow afternoon

TRAFALGAR MOTHERS' CLUB. At a meeting of the executive of the Trafalgar mothers' club, held last Friday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Fred Barnard on May street, plans were made for meeting of the club on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Charles Turner, presi-dent of the London Union mothers' club, has been invited to address the

YOUNG PEOPLE ORGANIZE.

Wardsville, Oct. 11.-A meeting held in the United church recently for the organization of a young people's society. Rev. Bolingbroke occupied the chair. Will A. Atkin-son was elected president; Lloyd son was elected president; Lloyd Simpson, vice-president; Glenn Pat ton, treasurer; Ruskin Findlay secretary. The convener of the devotional service is Hugh Carmen; nissionary, Miss Haggett and Mrs. in m; literary and social, Miss literary and social, Miss O'Malley and Miss Janet Elliott; organist, Miss Florence Lin-

The meetings are to be held on Fri

WARDSVILLE W. M. S.

Wardsville, Oct. 11 .- The W. M. S of United church met in the church on the hill recently, with a large attendance. Mrs. McDowell presided. Mrs. (Rev.) Bolingbroke led the dewill be and chicago. They will presided at the organ. Miss Nettie Euclid avenue, this city. presided at the organ. Atkinson gave a statement of the conditions in India and the work being done there. She was followe Isaac Watterworth, who took of "Building With India," and Mrs. Daum, who gave the adopted that a speaker be secured for

ENGAGEMENTS

A charge of 75c one insertion ($1.00 for 2 insertions) on the Women's Page is made for notices under this heading. Orders for inserting of engagement notices must bear the name and address of sender and must be in this office by 9 o'clock on the evening according first day of insertion. preceding first day of insertion.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Van Delinder wish t announce the engagement of their daughter Eva to Mr. Norman Mc-Cutcheon, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCutcheon, Glenooe, the marriage to take place the latter part of October.

ATTRACTIVE SPORTS MODELS.

Those young ladies interested in knitting their own sweaters will be delighted with the comfortable little jacket at the left. It can be knit in a plain stocking stitch and left at that or worked in colored wools in crossstitch usually on the front and sleeves, leaving the back plain. This is a Canadian design hand-made with Canadian yarns. At the right is a practical and colorful straight line sports frock for present wear. It is made of an all-wood material in a gay bordered design with boll buttons and of an all-wool material in a gay bordered design with ball buttons and colored riobon tie as ornaments.

CHILDREN ENTERTAIN PATIENTS AT BYRON

Pupils of Mrs. Grant-Harris Delight With Splendid Musical Program.

A number of the younger pupils of

A number of the younger pupils of Ceremony the guests were received by the mother of the bride and the mother of the groom. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Gray left for Montreal, Quebec city, and an extended tour of the Atlantic seaboard. They will return by way of the Adirondacks to reside in Sarnia. The bride travelled in a dress of golden brown satin, brown suedene coat with marmot fur, and small brown hat to match.

Mrs. Grant-Harris treated the patients at Byron sanatorium with a delightful program of music last Sat-beautifully, their young faces shining with the thought of helping others. They were also much impressed at the sight of so many suffering people, but happy in knowing that they had cheered them greatly. Through the kind ing tomorrow afternoon's meeting of the central W. C. T. U. at their rooms on Clarence street, at 3 o'clock.

Robert Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Sweet and Mr. and Mrs. Sangster, the children were conveyed to Byron in cars, and were later returned to the city in the e program concluded with a vio-nd voice chorus, the children lin and voice singing Auld Lang Syne.

The program included: A string trio, Tom Lawson, first violin; Ray Lawson, second violin and Hugh Kennedy, flute; piano solos, Billy Bennett, Marion Sweet, Connie Crockett, and Bessie Routledge; violin solos R. Dorland, Tom Orr, Betty Wismer, Jack Williams (Kenneth Williams at the piano), Ray Lawson; reading Catherine Clark; vocal solos, Tom Lawson, and Spanish dance in cosame by Marion Sweet.

WEDDINGS

KERNOHAN-BRYDGES.

Dublin street United church was at Thorndale. Rev. F. V. Vair, in a few well-chosen words, referred to Mitchell. wedding, when Miss Gertrude Jessie the many sterling qualities of Mrs. Brydges, of Guelph, became the bride Fothergill as a true Christian and denoted church worker and spoke of devoted church worker, and spoke of Mr. Reginald Webster Kernehan, the regret which was felt at her departure. Mrs. W. H. Burgess, president of the guild, made the of this city. Rev. Roy Frid performed the marriage ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, wore her smart travelling costume of ashes of roses tory was pretily decorated with shade, with trimming of Hudson seal, autumn flowers, and a pleasant time and carried Ophelia roses. Her at- was spent by the ladies in social in-

Mr. George E. Kernohan, of London, ttended his brother. The wedding music was played by Miss Marjorie Marshall, and during Mrs. the signing of the register Miss Isabel McNiven sang charmingly. Following a wedding lnucheon Mr. and Mrs. Kernohan left for Detroit final arrangements were made for the holding of a bazaar on Wednesday, and Chicago. They will reside at 70

GRAY-WILEY. A wedding of interest and charm was solemnized at Marysdale, Dresden, the home of the bride's mother on Saturday evening, Oct. 10, when Gertrude Evelyn, daughter late Dr. J. I. Wiley and Mrs. Wiley, was married to Mr. Ross W. Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Gray, home was attractive with decorations of flowers, an improvised altar of palms and ferns, and a canopy of sweet peas and maidenhair. The Rev. R. G. McKay, of Walkerton,

The bride, who was given away by her twin brother, Mr. Grant L. Wiley, Toronto, was gracefully gowned white cut georgette. The long tulle veil fell from a coronet of chantilly lace and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds, orchids and lilies of the valley. Mrs. R. D. McAlpine, Dresden, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Miss Elma Taylor, Toronto, was brides-maid. Little Miss Madge Wiley. The engagement is announced of tyrtle Gertrude, daughter of Mrs. and te late Mr. Geo. Sparling, of Durham, t., to Mr. Stanley Fred Youngs, only of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo F. Youngs, St. Thomas, the marriage to take the quietly the latter part of October.

BAPTIST WOMEN HOLDING ANNUAL Ontario West W. M. S. Con-

venes in Center Baptist Church, St. Thomas.

The annual two-day convention of he Ontario West Baptist women's missionary society is being held this year in Center street Baptist church St. Thomas, on Nov. 11 and 12.

More than 300 delegates from al parts of Western Ontario will attend he sessions, which are divided for foreign and home missions. Mrs. C J. Holman of Toronto will preside on the home mission day, and Mrs. Al-bert Matthews also of Toronto will be in charge of the second day, which vill be devoted to foreign missions. will be devoted to foreign insistence.

Reports will be presented by all the convention directors, including Mrs. James Baldwin of this city, director of the Middlesex-Lambton conven-

Among the speakers at the convention will be Miss A. Garbutt of Saskatoon, who is to address the gathering on "Home Missions"; Miss Selmen wissions on favourity from Selman, missionary on furlough from Indian; Miss Baskerville, also a missionary on furlough from India, and Rev. H. E. Stillwell, returned missionary from India.

Miss Garbutt, whose home is Peterboro, has done outstanding work for her church in the district sur-rounding Saskatoon in Western Canada. She has been missionary to the ada. She has been missionary to the foreign population and has brought many "stranger" children into connection with Sunday school teaching. The foreign missionaries to speak have all had wide experience. Mr. Stillwell will speak on Bollvia. It is expected there will be a very large delegation in attendance at the sions from this city.

presided at the piano. During the signing of the register Mrs. Goldwin Gray, of Chicago, sang.

At the reception following the reception following the Presenting Award For Presenting Award For ceremony the guests were received Entrance Examination.

An interesting meeting of the St George's mothers' club is being held on Tuesday evening, Oct. 20, when a prize will be awarded to the pupil of St. George's school obtaining the highest entrance examination marks match.

The groom, who is Mr. Gray of Cowan, Cowan & Gray, law firm, Sarnia, is a well-known athlete and Companying young lawyer of Wart promising young lawyer of West-delightful program of music last saturday afternoon. The performers ranged from five to twelve years in age, and have been named "The Sunbeams" by their teachers.

The little people quite rose to the occasion and both played and sang beautifully their voung faces shining the content of the content of the people quite rose to the occasion and both played and sang beautifully their voung faces shining to promising young lawyer of Western dependence of the promising young lawyer of Western on the promising young lawyer of Western on the promising young lawyer of Western on the played at a session of the executive held last Friday at the school. The year's program will also be discussed at the initial meeting of the club, which will also take the form of a getting their voung faces shining the promising young lawyer of Western on the promising young

Stratford, Oct. 12.—A quiet wedding was solemnized Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in St. James' SOCIETY IS DISBANDED

W. M. S. Holds Last Meeting in St. Paul's United Church.

Mr. Peter K. Ingle of this city. Afte the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride for the im-daughter of Mr. Charles Geldart of this city, was united in marriage to

Mr. James Chesney Ingle, son of Mr. James A. Ingle, London, England. Rev. Canon W. T. Cluff officiated.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Edna Geldart, of Buffalo, N. Y., and the bridegroom by his brothe:

ST. MONICA'S GUILD.

Mrs. Fothergill fitting-

y replied, thanking the members for Melrose, Oct. 11. - An enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Ferguson is president, gathered for

After the usual opening exercises, conveners and assistants of the varius booths were appointed as follows:

I. Wilson, aprons; Mrs. Mahan, miscellaneous; Mrs. J. Reep, Christmas gifts; Mrs. A. Steel, tearoom.

At the close of the meeting, the secretary, Mrs. John Reep, gave a very gratifying financial report of the secretary which netted $146

Webber, Elias street, recently, Mrs. E. Shildrick winning the first prize for euchre and Mrs. R. Aikens carrying off the second prize. At the tea

the hostess was assisted

Mrs. Inkpen. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Perrin, on Thursday, October 15.

SUN.WIND.DUST & CINDERS

URINE CO

A. Knight, country store; Mr.

home, which netted $146

mediate relatives and friends.

guild to afternoon tea at their kind gift and wishes.

their monthly meeting

MELROSE LADIES' AID.

Andrew Ferguson, when the ladies' aid, of which Mrs.

Nov. 11, in the comuminty hall.

a trip to Los Angeles.

Special to The Advertiser. Tillsonburg, Oct. 9 .- The last regular meeting of the Norwich district Later Mr. and Mrs. Ingle left for Methodist W. M. S. was held in St. Paul's United church today, with a large attendance of delegates. The morning program consisted mainly Wallaceburg, Oct. 11. — Recently of the reading of reports, the deers of St. Monica's chancel votional exercises being taken by the local auxiliary. A splendid address of James' rectory. A pleasing feature welcome was tendered the delegates by Mrs. A. E. Marshall and Miss Pauline Hogarth, and replied to by the Norwich auxiliary. Greetings from the sister churches were given was the presentation of an umbrella to Mrs. Chas. Fothergill as a token of esteem from the members of the guild upon her departure for her new home

The afternoon session opened with special exercises, conducted by Rev G. C. Mitchell. Splendid addresses were delivered as follows: Survey of the mission work in South Africa under the charge of the Congregational church by Mrs. (Rev.) D. W Martin of Brantford, systematic giving by Rev. Quigley of Derehan Centre, prayer by Mrs. (Rev.) James of Salford.

It was decided to make no change in the officers at present, and Mrs. J. Poole of Salford continued to act as superintendent. Mrs. (Dr.) J. B. Reid as assistant superintendent, and Mrs. F. Small of Mount Elgin as secretary-treasurer.

Dinner and tea was served to the delegates in the banquet room of the church, and everybody heartily enjoyed the splendid speeches. During street. on solos were rendered by Mrs. J. H. Rush and Miss Wilma

CATHOLIC SOCIAL CLUB.

Stratford, Oct. 11 .- Miss Rhea Kneitl was re-elected president of the Catholi social club by acclamation at the annual meeting. The other officers elected were: First vice-president, Mrs. F. L. of Duggan; second vice-president, Miss Abbie Clifford; third vice-president, Mrs. E. Bart; secretary, Miss Clara Ed-wards; treasurer, Mrs. E. McCardle (re-Members of the Golden Link Club elected); social convener, Miss Irene Bolger; house convener, Miss Anne Kehoe; membership conveners, Misses Mary McDermid and Merva Hisson.

KILWORTH L. A.

Komoka, Oct. 11.-The Kilworth Ladies' Aid, met at the home of Mrs. John Smith, recently and transacted a lot of important busines This being the second birthday of the society, it was celebrated by a dime shower. The winners of the three prizes offered were Mrs. James Bourne, a pair damask towels; Mrs. John Smith, a linen tray cloth and Mrs. James Kilbourne, a flower

The society is small in number but rogressive in spirit, and is plan-ning extensive improvements in the

Social and Personal

Mrs. A. Hull of Toronto is a guest with Mrs. C. Parr, Quebec street. Mr. Marcus Auden of the Actuary Department of the Confederation Life, has left for Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. John A. Nash have left for New York, to attend the jewelry style displays. a week-end guest with Miss Marjorie Ross at Hayman Court.

Mrs. Lillian Gerson of Rochester, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. Thomas Nopper, Dundas street. Mr. Collin Scatcher, who is a guest with Mrs. Whitehead in Montreal, is returning to town this week.

Miss Eleanor Robinson is entertaining at a bridge party on Tuesday for Miss Lorraine Abbott.

Mr. H. R. Smellie of Chicago is spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. F. Dark, River road. Mr. and Mrs. George W. Yates of Ottawa were guests with London relatives over the week-end.

Mrs. M. J. Taylor of Chatham is a with her sister-in-law. Mrs. J. B. Campbell, Central avenue. Miss Ida Way of Ottaway avenue has returned home after spending a delightful two weeks' holidays visitng friends and relatives in Chatham. Mrs. W. D. MacEdwards has returned to the city after spending two months in Manitowock and Mil-waukee, Wisconsin.

Col. and Mrs. Carling entertained at dinner on Saturday night at the Hunt club for the opening dinnerlance of the season. Mr. Colin Duffield entertained at dinner at the Hunt club on Satur-day night for the opening dinner-

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boss and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trafford and son Willard are guests at the Prince George in Toronto.

Mrs. Leonard Craig entertained at a delightful kitchen shower at her home on Tecumseh avenue last week for Miss Jean Switzer, a bride-elect. Mrs. H. W. Switzer entertained a trousseau tea on Saturday for er daughter, Miss Jean Switzer, a ride-elect of October.

Mrs. D. J. Nolan is the general convener of St. Michael's bazaar, which is being planned for this week. Afternoon tea will add a social note to the

Mr. A. K. Copeland of Wingham recently spent a few days with his sister, Mrs. W. A. Jenkins, Queen's avenue.

Miss Isabel Armstrong was among the speakers at an important gathering of Liberal women held at Holt's

Miss Margaret Scatcherd, who at present enjoying a sojourn Bath, England, is expected home at Leigh.

Burgess, Nellie McEwen, Elsie Heat, and Mrs. Hugh McCormick, Mrs. C. Bryont, Mrs. C. Leigh.

Mrs. Kenneth Green was a guest last week with Mr. and Mrs. George McCormick, at their summer home "Oakay" on the St. Clair river. he end of the month. opens its season tomorrow afternoon with a meeting at Playercraft, over which Miss Evelyn Harrison will Miss Isabel Armstrong is expected Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Chambers preside. in the city on Wednesday and wind be a guest for a short time with her brother, Mr. Murray T. Armstrong, and Mrs. Armstrong, Oxford street. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boss, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tratguests at the Prince George, To-

Miss Shirley Johnston entertained luncheon of twelve at a smart luncheon of twelve covers at the Hunt club on Saturday for Miss Lorraine Abbott, one of October's lovely bride-elects.

Mrs. James Welch is lending her come on Mill street for a bridge and euchre on Tuesday evening. benefit for the Christmas treat being given the home children by the Sacred Heart Mothers' Unit.

Mrs. John Weld was among those ntertaining at dinner parties at the London Hunt and Country club for the opening dinner dance of the ason on Saturday night. Mrs. Ernest G. Martin, a charming newcomer to the city from St. John, N. B., is receiving for the first time her marriage at her home Ceneral avenue, on Wednesday afteroon, October 21. Miss Muriel Smith of Barrie is a guest with her aunt, Mrs. (Dr.) Mc-Neil, Queen's avenue, and in her honor Mrs. McNeil entertained at a charming little tea on Friday after-

Bernard Mills and Miss Dorothy Neilson of Kingston are expected in town today to spend about two weeks with the former's sister. Mrs. F. M. Letteney, Maitland

Mrs. Fred Ransom, Horton street, was the hostess of a delightfully arranged birthday party recently, when she entertained in honor of Mrs. John Dierlamm. The evening was spent in dancing.

Miss Violet Trench arrived in the city on Saturday night, and is a guest with Mrs. E. B. Smith. Miss Trench, who comes from England, is intensely interested in girls and will address a rally shortly. Dr. Harry Arnott came over from

Mrs. David Arnott, Queen's avenue, returning yesterday to Hamilton, ac-companied by his wife, who has been guest in the city for the past week. Mr. Kenneth Auden recently spent a few days with his parents, Prof. and Mrs. H. W. Auden, St. George street, while on his way from Van couver, B. C., to Urbana, Ill., where he enters upon a fellowship term in the University of Illinois. Mrs. J. J. Roach, King street, goes Sarnia early in November attend the annual meeting of the London Diocesan Catholic Women's London Diocesan Catholic Women's dancing, which was much enjoyed. There was a large attendance and councillor. Mrs. Roach is the only the lodge will have a very generous shipment of fruit to send to the Oddent diocesan executive. councillor. Mrs. Roach is the only London representative on the present diocesan executive Miss Elizabeth McLenan of Toronto was a week-end guest with Professor and Mrs. H. W. Auden, St. George street, coming to town for the Weld-Baker wedding on Satur-day. Miss McLenunan and Mrs. Weld (formerly Miss Helen Baker) were college mates at Oxford University.

Mr. F. Earl Robinson and Mrs Robinson of Lethbridge, Alberta Miss Jess O'Neill of Stratford was week-end guest with Miss Marjorie Ross at Hayman Court.

Mrs. Lillian Gerson of Rochester, Mrs. Lillian Gerson of Rochester, Robinson left on Friday for Walkerville and is expected back in his home town about the end of the month. On Friday evening, the members of the Opheleso club met at the home of Mrs. Webster, on Wellington street north, to honor Miss Jean Switzer, whose marriage to Mr. J. L. Burgess takes place this month. During the evening the guest of honor was presented with a handsome walnut sewing cabinet.

General Sir Fabian Ware, vicepresident of the imperial war graves commission, and Col. H. C. Csborne, who are to be in London on Thursday, are at the present time guests in Toronto. Sir Fabian Ware will address a meeting at the Metropolitan hall, this city, on Thursday even ing under the auspices of the Municipal chapter, I. D. D. E.

Mrs. W. E. Kelly, president of the London presbyterial W. M. S. of the London presbyterial W. M. S. of the Presbyterian church, and Mrs. M. B. McEachern, provincial secretary for the welcome and welfare department of the provincial Presbyterian W. M. S., were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Inkster at Knox church manse, Toronto, while in that city attending the provincial board meeting.

Miss Myrtle Janney was the hostess of a delightful shower last week. dance.

Mr. Ivan Hargreaves of Toronto spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bamford, avenue.

Mr. W. A. Mitchell was the host of a dinner party at the Hunt club on Saturday night for the opening dinner-dance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boss and Mr. Mr. Jack Dewards Vates of Devards and Mrs. Mr. Jack Dewards Vates of Devards when the served by the hostess.

Mr. Jack Dewarde Yates of De troit was a guest in the city over the week-end, visiting q relatives here en route to his home from Europe, where he has spent several months as tenor soloist with an all-America. concert company. The tour was most successful and included France, Germany, Finland, northern Russia and Norway and Sweden. Mr. Yates is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Yates, formerly Londoners, and has a most promising future before him on the concert stage.

was the hostess of a kitchen shower given recently in honor of Miss Jean Switzer, a bride-elect of the month. The feature of the parents of striped material on an other-lingam is the general contractor. auction sale, the key of the cnest being purchased by the bride-to-be. It held a note, telling her to open the chest disclosing the gifts. The rooms were gaily decorated with asters and were gaily decorated with asters and dahlias. Games were enjoyed, after leather are the materials from Mr. Charles Foster, manager of the John A. Nash store, has left for New York to attend the styles display.

Miss Lula Smith of Hellmuth avenue has returned home after spending the summer with her spending the summer with her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) Hauch, in Chicago.

Miss Margaret Scatcherd, who is Margaret Scatcherd, who is Margaret Scatcherd, who is Margaret Scatcherd with McCormick, Mrs.

Which the guests were served a dainty supper by the hostess, assisted by Miss Meta Boyce. Those present were the Misses Jean Switzer, Madeline Switzer, Madeline Switzer, Madeline Greaham, Lill Shillington, Jean Baker, Ann Burgess, Nellie McEwen, Elsie Reid, and Mrs. Hugh McCormick, Mrs. which the guests were served a dainty which bootmakers are producing

ACCORMICK, at their summer home Oakay" on the St. Clair river. The University Women's club were made for winter work. A presentation of On the contrary, its purpose is to hold hips down. Therefore, it is of hold hips down. Therefore, it is of the contrary were made for winter work. A presentation of On the contrary, its purpose is to hold hips down. Therefore, it is of the contrary were made for winter work. A presentation of On the contrary, its purpose is to hold hips down. Therefore, it is of the contrary were made for winter work. A presentation of On the contrary, its purpose is to hold hips down. Therefore, it is of the contrary were made for winter work. A presentation of the contrary were made WEDDING ANNIVERSARI

Figure in Unique Event at Aylmer.

Special to The Advertiser.

late Aleck Moore and Elizabeth Storey of Bayham, Ont., and Arthur Chambers, son of the late Nelson Chambers and Clarissa Pound of Malahide, were married in St. Thomas, and on Thursday, Oct. 1, 1925, they celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. H. Wagner, Crampton. About one hundred relatives and friends were present from the surrounding district and Aylmer. The building and tables were prettily tempted by the church, and efforts the Sunday school convention to be decorated with autumn leaves, bouquets of flowers, streamers of golden paper, etc., and a mammoth wedding cake trimmed with golden seals and stars, crowned with a bouquet of roses, graced the center of the tables

At noon a procession was formed at the house and, headed by Rev. nd Mrs. Ball of Avon, followed by Mr. and Mrs. Chambers and guests, marched to the special dining hall. After dinner a program was enjoyed which consisted of vocal duets by Miss Myrtle Brown and Mr. Merritt Brown, of Crampton; two readings by Mrs. Maxwell Wagner, of Stratford; musical selections by James Moore, of Aylmer, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Walter Wilcox; addreses by Mr. W. Cartwright, of Claton, and others. During the afternoon a picture of the groom of fifty years ago was taken The oldest person present was Mr.
McLaughlin, aged 88, of Avon, and the oldest lady, Mrs. Mary A. Crane, aged 84 years, of Orwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Chambers have been lifelong residents of this district, where they were successful agriculturists for many years, retiring a few years ago to Aylmer and where they have their home on St. George street. They were with six children, three of whom are Hamilton on Saturday and was a living: Mrs. W. H. Wagner, Cramp-guest for a short time with Dr. and ton; Mrs. Fred Crane, Orwell, and Mrs. Fred Crane, Orwell, and ton; Mrs. Fred Crane, Orwell, and Mr. Garnet Chambers, Aylmer, Ai though well past three score years and ten, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers still enjoy good health.

MYRTLE REBEKAH LODGE.

Tillsonburg, Oct. 11.—The members and friends of Myrtle Rebekah Lodge were very delightfully entertained to their annual card party and fruit shower this week, in the lodge room, which was prettily decorated for the occasion. Cards were played, after which supper was served, followed by dancing, which was much enjoyed.

PANELS PLACED FRONT AND BACK

Satin and Patent Leather Used in Producing Exclusive Fall Designs.

BY AILEEN LAMONT.

well. As a consequence some famous manufacturers of tollet accessories

now are stressing rouge and lipstick of a faint orange tint, combined with blush pink, which is guaranteed waterproof, smearproof, kissproof, and rough of the combined waterproof, smearproof, smearp

Aylmer, Oct. 11.—On Oct. 1, 1875, dealer ever put a fake antique games and mus dealer ever put a fake antique games and mus were joined by allow Mary Jane Moore, daughter of the clares on her majesty, but her milliners have sold her some hats that almost qualify for the antique class.

DELAWARE UNITED L. A. Delaware, Oct. 11.—The regular meeting of the Delaware United Church Ladies' Aid society was held at the home of Mrs. Donald Bodkin recently. A large number of ladies were present. Much progress was made with the arrangements for forthcoming bazaar, which will be held the latter part of November. It is expected that this bazaar will be one of the biggest things ever atare being made to interest ail ladies of the congregation in the work. Mrs. W. V. Jones, the president, assisted by Mrs. Victor Jackson, the secretary, and by committees for every emergency, intend to 26 put the bazaar over in grand style. The next meeting of the aid will be were made known, held at the home of Mrs. William Bourne won the first

Fowler on the second concession. WALLACEBURG SUPPER.

CHURCH AT STRATFORD COMMENCES BUILDING

Permanent S. S. Structure Will House Church Services

Temporarily.

Special to The Advertiser. Stratford, Oct. 11 .- Sod has been broken for the new Parkview United Sunday school building, which is to New York, Cct. 11.—Panels in a be erected at the corner of King and house are usually concealed, but Ontario streets. It is hoped that the while J. R. Myers & Sons are the plumbers. The building that is now being erected is for Sunday school purposes primarily. The auditorium will be used as a church until time comes when a church proper can be financed. The attendance at the Sunday school is growing weekly, the 240 mark having been reached.

WALLACEBURG CLASS.

Special to The Advertiser. Wallaceburg, Oct. 11.-The girls of Miss Margaret Logan's class of the Knox Presbyterian church Sunday school held their first meeting at the home of Miss Rheita Seed. Much and permanent from one dawn to business was transacted, and plans were made for winter work. A pleashold hips down. Therefore, it is of rubber, is of the step-in variety without lacing or fastening, has no hose supporters and only two pliable steels embedded in its front.

In the last few weeks, according to cables from abroad, Queen Mary of England has spent around $20,000 in antiques, many of which will be plied and thanked the members for in antiques, many of which will be plied and thanked the members for used as Christmas presents next De-It is said truly that no meeting a happy time was spent ever put a fake antique games and music, and the member of the highest control of were joined by some of the high surprise to Miss McVittie. freshments were served by Miss Seed, who was assisted by Miss Margaret Logan. KILWORTH L. A.

Special to The Advertiser. Delaware, Oct. 11.-A very successful meeting of the Kilworth Ladies' society was held at the home of Mrs. John Smith, on the Commission road, near Kilworth, last week. Mrs. James Kilbourne, the president, was in the the chair. Preparations were made for held at Kilworth United church on Tuesday under the Ontario council of Religious Education, and also for the annual chicken supper, which will be held on Oct

The results of the Dime contest John Smith, the second, and Mrs and Mrs. James Kilbourne third Wallaceburg, Oct. 11.—The ladies' guild of St. James' Anglican church neld a most successful supper in the parish hall recently. It was largely attended, the receipts amounting to $105. The hall was prettily decorated with autumn flowers and shaded lights. Mrs. H. J. McDougall is the president of the guild.

RODNEY W. M. S.

Rodney, Oct. 11.—The October meeting of the W. M. S. of the United church, Rodney, was held in the church last week. The scripture versary on November 1, to be followed by a hot supper and good proreading was given by Mrs. S. Dor-land. The topic was given by Mrs. C. Ludy. Mrs. H. W. Thomson gave 'Our Messenger," and Pinski, of the Hamilton Polish Mis-Mrs. T. T. Galbraith gave a paper sion, addressed a large number of on "Our Hospital Work." Miss Irene women. Mrs. La Pinski's address was

You have been intending to try "Red Rose." Why not now before you forget.

REDROSE TEA"is good tea"

The ORANGE PEKOE is extra good. Try it!