BARON KAUFMANN SUICIDES.

The Dying Prince.

BARON KAUFMANN SUICIDES, Baron Kaufmann, adjutant to the Czar, committed suicide last night at St. Peters-burg, by shooting himself. An attempt was made to keep the affair quiet but with-out success. The official enquiry to ascer-tain the cause of the deed, has resulted in disclosing the fact that the Baron had recently austained heavy losses at the gam-ing table, for which he had given notes that he was unable to pay. It is assumed that he killed himself to avoid the digrace which his failure to meet these obligations would have entailed. Roms, March 10.—Prince Viotor was to-day brought by the Princess Clothilde, wife of Prince Jerome Napoleon, to the bedside of his dying father. Prince Napoleon recog-nized his son and said to him "I am going: all is over." The attending physiciaus say that it is not likely that death will occur inverdictor. mediately.

The mate, with a large gang of men, was hard at work nutil midnight putting freight on board the Danube, which having com-leted, she will sail at once for the north. Steame a Islander and City of Kingston continue to bring in large cargoes. After the longest passage ever made be-tween Great Britain and the Pacific Coast, the British bark Embleton arrived at Port Townsend on Monday. She was 613 days from the port of Ardrossan, Scotland. The voyage was a series of accidents that were enough to wear out the patience of Job. The Embleton left Ardrossan on July 3, 1886, for Tacoma, in command of Capt. Bennets. HERE WINDTHORST DYING.
