GASCONS.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Thomas Chedore of Gascon, Que., who passed peacefully at his home on the 18th of October, 1921 at the age of seventy-five years. He was one of the oldest and most widely respected members of St. Philippe Church of whose property it was synodically ruled by the late wardens of the same for over thirty years. People from far and near came to the funeral which was to have taken place on Saturday afternoon, but just as all friends and relatives also the Rev. Mr. Hudson were at the house to have prayers before removing the body to the church a telegram arrived from his eldest daughter, Mrs. Collins of St. John, N. B. to meet her at the train that night, so a family meeting was held and it was decided as all present thought best to postpone the funeral until Sunday. Some of his oldest friends were there namely: Mr. Wm. McPherson, Mr. James Dove, Mr. and Mrs. James Miller, Port Daniel; and Mr. John Allan of Shigawake. He leaves four sons and two daughters, also thirty-five grand children and seven great grand children to mourn his loss. The funeral services were many and beautiful. The church was crowded by people of every denomination, the funeral service being conducted by the Rev. J. Hudson and the musical part of the service was sympathetically rendered by Miss Julia Chedore. Our deepest sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

He rests from his labours in his Savior's keeping. May his soul rest in peace.
