IRISH MOTHER SENT TEN SONS TO WAR

Five Have Fallen—Nine Brothers of an English Family Enlisted, and Six Were Killed

This is a very plain tale (says James Douglas in the London Daily News). It is told in orders that every man, woman and child in these little islands and in their sister-lands all over the world may admire and emulate its ardor of matchless self-sacrifice and simple duty simply done by obscure and humble souls. It is told in order that the English people, the Welsh people and the Scottish people may with a common gesture of reverence salute the Irish people, that has bred a woman so very great and men so very gallant.

In the little town of Loughrea, County Galway, there lives an Irish mother whose heart is peopled with many sorrows. Her name is Mrs. FURY. She is a mourning widow, who deserves to be chieftain in marble like the mourning widows of the great Serbian sculptor, Alekovic. This is her incredible story, a story the like of which I have never heard or read in all the annals of war. Her husband, now dead, was a soldier in the Connaught Rangers, one John FURY. He served in the famous regiment for twenty-one years, and died, full of years and honor, in 1903. A year ago, on the second of August, Mrs. FURY gave all her sons to the cause of the Allies—no fewer than ten strong men. The story of her ten heroic sons—five of whom have fallen on the field of battle—is without precedent—or parallel in the records of war, ancient or modern. Homer himself never had such a story to sing.

Private William Clarke, of the East Lancashire Regiment, is one of nine brothers who were mobilized on the outbreak of the war, all in the same regiment, and of whom six have been killed, another is without his right arm as the result of wounds, and the youngest is still in the trenches.

WILL WE EVER WALK ON AIR?

Train Of Thought Inspired By A Letter About "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. D. MCLEAN

Orillia, Ont., Nov. 28th, 1914.
"For over two years, I was troubled with Constipation, Drowsiness, Lack of Appetite and Headaches. I tried several medicines, but got no results and my Headaches became more severe. One day I saw your sign which read 'Fruit-a-tives' make you feel like walking on air. This appealed to me, so I decided to try a box. In a very short time, I began to feel better, and now I feel fine. Now I have a good appetite, relish everything I eat, and the Headaches are gone entirely. I cannot say too much for 'Fruit-a-tives', and recommend this pleasant fruit medicine to all my friends'."
DAN MCLEAN.
"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is daily proving its priceless value in relieving cases of Stomach, Liver and Kidney Trouble—General Weakness, and Skin Diseases. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

SUPREME SACRIFICE MADE BY CYRIL VIGOT

Large Number Of The Brave Young Man's Friends Stunned by the News that he was Killed in Action.

Gloucester county has sent many of its finest young men to the war, some of whom it knew would be sacrificed to the holiest cause yet espoused by the greatest nation in the world, and it has fallen to the lot of Cyril Vigot to mark his name first on the list of martyred heroes.

Born in the parish of Grouville on the island of Jersey, an island that has contributed some of the best blood which has been infused into citizenship of this county, Mr. Vigot came to this country about ten years ago, being then seventeen years old, and for over four years was employed by the Wm. Fring Co. at their Lamèque establishment. Since that time he was engaged by the W. S. Loggie Co., first at their Shippegan store for four years, and then for two years preceding his departure to join the 26th Battalion, at Lower Carleton Place, where he occupied the responsible position of manager of the Loggie interests there. His splendid physique and frank, open countenance were true indices of the soul of man, for no one who ever made his acquaintance found him other than clean of life and upright of character. Bright of disposition, with an engaging manner that made him friends everywhere, and energetic in business affairs, Cyril Vigot was an example of the best that Gloucester could offer of its young manhood, and the terrible tragedy of war seemed accentuated by the sudden and complete snuffing out of a life of such promise.

The details of the circumstances under which Mr. Vigot met his death have not yet been received, the first announcement of the sad news to Gloucester county friends being the bare, bald, shocking announcement in the official list of casualties of "Killed in Action", 26th Battalion, Pte. Cyril Vigot, and the later confirmation in a short personal letter from Pte. Benson McLeod to Mr. John LeMarquand of this town, who was formerly associated with Mr. Vigot at Shippegan. The surviving relatives of the late soldier consist of two sisters in England, and a brother in the marine transport service.

It is believed possible to also recruit the proposed 145th Battalion in Westmorland and Kent.

I Am "Granny" Chamberlain

Everybody's friend when they have coughs and colds and their children have croup and whooping cough.

Most everyone knows me. I have been going from home to home for nearly fifty years—always welcome, too, for I never fail in their hour of need.

I have helped young mothers whose babies were choking with croup, and been the comfort of parents whose children tramp to school through the wet winter weather. Many a cold and attack of bronchitis I have warded off, and thousands I have helped through the anxious moments of whooping cough. I have come to the aid of mothers and fathers when they had colds and influenza, and have been a relief to old folks suffering from bronchitis and asthma.

I have had a most varied experience; I go everywhere—among the rich and the poor, in cities and the country.

Now don't forget "Granny" Chamberlain! You will see me often now, for I am going to tell you of my experience and what can be done in your home with
