More About Sunol, Robert Bonner has received the following letter from Sunol's trainer, Charles Marvin, that makes him expect some record break

Sunol is doing well, but don't think best "Sunol is doing well, but don't think best to hurry her preparation unless you are anxious to have her come east next month (October; Sunol was to have been delivered on October 15). I really think she ought to have one month's more preparation before asking her to do her best. I worked her three miles yesterday, the last in 2.17; last quarter of a mile in 32 seconds (208 gait), and I like her very, much. Barring, accidents I think she will go a great mile yet. The new track will not be in first-class order for some time wet." Mr. Bonner telegraphed back: "Take your own time. Don't hurry her on my account. You can keep her until Nov. 1 if you want to. "ROBERT BONNER."

Talk of a Big English Race. Buffalo, Oct. 5.—A London cable says: The match which Blundell Maple seeks to arrange by running the crack three-year-old Common against Queen's Birthday in two races for a wager of £5000 for each race is races for a wager of £5000 for each race is attracting much interest among sportsmen, but the owner of Queen's Birthday, Major Joice, declines to run at a mile and a half, though he is quite willing to run at two miles, reducing the stakes to £1000 a side, which the winner should give to some charity. Maple has this now under consideration, and as he lives by advertisement it is possible that he will make some sacrifice to account it.

A Bicyclist's Queer Experience. London, Oct. 5.—Mr. G. P. Mills had a remarkable experience in his record-breaking bicycle ride from Land's End to John O'Groat's. He feil fast asleep when only four miles from his journey's end, and, in spite of all efforts, he could not be awakened for seven hours. It was originally stated that he had beaten his own record by 21 hours. This, however, is not correct, as the right time how been shown to be 14% hours.

Comments on Saturday's Match in Montreal.

The Gazette, in describing Saturday's match between Toronto and Montreal, says: There were two things to be learned from the match—one was that Montreal is more than an equal for Toronto; the other lesson that Montreal learned was to the effect that opponents, especially in a lacrosse match, should never be despised. To sum uptit was a poor lacrosse match of championship teams; Toronto was like the man who missed connection with the balloon; and Montreal was affected with the complaint we read about which the hare had when he put up that foot-racing job with a hard-shell tortoise, with this difference, that the hare woke up just in time to win the race.

Montrealers may swallow this all right, but anyone who witnessed the match here on the 26th ult. will know how much attention to pay to it.

THE RING.

Ward v. McKay is an action for damages brought against the editor of The Ridgetown Plaindealer by the well-known lecturer Mr. Wad-el-Ward, and caused by the publication of an article alleged by the plaintiff to be totally untrue and libelous. A three-line paragraph in the issue of Dec. 25, 1830, stated that Wad-el-Ward "passed through town the last Saturday on his way east to answer to a charge of fraud. He was in the baggage-par and handcuffed." The case proceeds to-day.

The last performance of the George Dixon return made some heat deliveries, but it was evident that Dixon was taking matters easy,
