Snyder was downed on Varsity's 40-yard line on Carrol's kick. The game was constantly being stopped on account of injunies to players, McGill being the chief sufferers, and apparently Varsity was in the best condition. Fisher downed Carroll on McGill's 29-yard line. McGill was penalized for interference and kicked to center field. Somerville kicked and then a McGill back field run netted 25 yards. Amother similar play around the right netted 15.

Carroll kicked to Somerville, who fumbled, but recovered on Varsity's 13-yard line. Snyder made eight. Westman failed to give yards on Somerville's kick and McGill was given possession in midfield. Three-qarter score: Varsity 15, McGill 1.

The game had every appearance of ending with the score at 3 to 1, but Dame Fortune had her way. Referee Noble gave the soldiers a free kick as a penalty, and the W.O.R. made it 3 to 2, with but a few more minutes left to p'ay. The soldiers kept the ball in their opponents' territory until some pretty heading of the ball by Angus made it possible to score the tying goal. Angus made it possible to score the tying goal.

The Public Utilities then rushed the ball to the other end of the field, but failed to deliver the necessary punch.

The P.U. outplayed the soldiers, who, by the way, had most of the support of the spectators, as Fuller was called upon to ston many more deadly expert.

Rivalry between the teams was keen, but not nearly so noticeable as between the spectators, as the game no cooner ended when a battle of fists was started in front of the stand.

The teams will meet again next Saturday to determine the winner and another big turnout is assured. The lineups were:

London C. I. Plays Technical To-Day

The London Collegiate's loss to Woodstock College on Saturday does not go down in the records as such, as the college defaulted its union game to London to play their first team, which was eliminated in the O. R. F. U. by St. Thomas. The Technical Institute team plays the London Collegiate this afternoon in their return match, also an Oxford-Middlesex Union fixture, at Tecumseh Park.

The L. C. !. plays its last game with Woodstock Collegiate in Woodstock on Friday.
