

	PAGE
Martiningo, vnto the renowned prince the Duke of Venice	234
Sub-section 1 The first assault	240
2 The second assault	241
3 The third assault	242
4 The fourth assault	243
5 The fift assault	247
6 The sixt and last assault	247
7 The captaines of the Christians slaine in Famagusta	253
8 The names of Christians made slaues	254
9 The Fortifiers	255
10 Turkish Captains at Famagusta	255
L. The renuing and increasing of an ancient and commo- dious trade in the Levant	256
LI. The letters sent from Murad Can to Elizabeth	257
LII. The answer of her Maiestie to the aforesaid letters	259
LIII. The Charter of the priuileges granted to the English, dated in Iune 1500	264
LIV. Her Maiesties letter to the Turke, 1581	273
LV. The letters patent graunted by Her Maiestie to Sir Edward Osborne and other Marchants of London for their trade into the dominions of the great Turke, 1681	283
LVI. The Queenes Commission to Master William Hare- borne, to be her Maiesties ambassadour in the partes of Turkie, 1582	283
LVII. The Queenes letters to the great Turke, 1582	286
LVIII. A letter of the Queenes Maiestie to Ali Bassa, the Turkes High Admirall	289
LIX. A briefe remembrance of things to be indeuoured at Constantinople, &c., touching our clothing and our dying, drawn by M. Richard Hakluyt of the Middle Temple, 1582	290
LX. Remembrance for Master S., &c.	291
LXI. The voyage of the Susan of London to Constantinople	302
LXII. A letter of Mustapha Chaus to the Queene	315
LXIII. A letter of M. Harborne to Mustapha	315
VOL. VII.	N 2