OUR PICTURE.

Our Picture this month sets before us the Mater Dolorosa, the grieving Mother of our Lord. There has been brought to her, apparently after the Crucifixion, the cruel Crown of Thorns, and a sword naturally pierces through her very soul. But she is not left without comfort. Angels are represented by the Artist as ministering unto her, pressing upon her that her Beloved is not really lost to her, that immediately He will rise again the third day from the dead, will ascend a few days later into Heaven, and will be sitting on the Right Hand of God, and there reigning till at length He shall come again to judge both the quick and dead, and shall henceforth be for all His blessed ones the King of Heaven. Here is much that is no doubt hard to receive : here
