HOW TO GET WELL, KEEP WELL AND LIVE LONG

Dr. DANELSON'S COUNSELOR WITH RECIPES

A TRUSTY GUIDE FOR THE FAMILY. An illustrated book of nearly 800 pages, treating Physiology, Hygiene, Marriage, Medical Practice, etc. Describing all known diseases and ailments, and giving plain prescriptions for their cure with proper directions for home treatment. The RECIPES are endorsed by eminent physicians and the medical press. Remedies are always given in a pleasant form, and the reasons for their use. It describes the best Wash, Liniments, Salves, Plasters, Infusions, Pills, Injections, Sprays, Syrups, Tonics, etc. These are valuable to the physician and nurse, making it a manual for reference. The chapter upon POISONS is exhaustive and every poison appears in the index, so that the antidote can be readily and, if need be, hurriedly found. 18 pages upon MARRIAGE treat the subject historically, philosophically and physiologically. It should be read by everybody. 67 pages upon HYGIENE or the Preservation of Health; a chapter of inestimable value. "Everybody wishes to be healthy, and everybody when they think of it at any rate, wishes to avoid such things as might bring disease and suffering." 500 pages which follow present MEDICAL TREATMENT with Sensible and Scientific Methods of Cure. 80 pages are devoted to PHYSIOLOGY, giving an accurate and extensive description of the wonderful and mysterious working of the machinery within ourselves, correcting many popular errors, and marking vividly the stumbling blocks where most people, innocently or carelessly, begin to lose health. Truths are stated which to many will be surprising. Sent, postage paid, on receipt of $1.

OXFORD PUBLISHING COMPANY 5 Jordan Street, Toronto.

"This magazine is ably edited, is always interesting, furnishing information which even the most learned may accept with gratitude, and is printed with such care and taste as to be a pleasure to handle and look at."—Montreal Gazette.

"The best publication of the kind. Mrs. Lamb, while doing ample justice to New York, is true to the whole country. Every State has its own interesting history, and she collects and prints material reflecting honour on the youngest as well as the oldest member of the Union."—New York Journal of Commerce.

"This sterling monthly, under the direction of Mrs. Lamb, has demonstrated that American history has a charm that none can afford to lose. It is ahead of all its contemporaries in its wealth of information."—The Geneva Courier.
