The principal object of the present work is to present a life-like portraiture of a man of unique moral and intellectual character, and one of the best beloved men of his time: who was also a strong and enduring force in the religious life of his city and his denomination, and of the Dominion. All the available material that could fairly illustrate his mental and spiritual development, as well as his life-work, has been freely utilized.

WILLIAM BRIGGS, - WESLEY BUILDINGS, - TORONTO, ONT.

C. W. COATES, Montreal.

S. F. HUBSTIS, Halifax.
