

RAILWAY SPECIAL.

THE Railway Committee has decided to publish a monthly Bulletin to be known as "OUR SPECIAL." The first number is issued this week. The "SPECIAL" will be in charge of Bro. Burford, our Railway Secretary.

WHY THEY OFTEN FAIL.

YOUNG men often fail to get on in the world because they neglect small opportunities. Not being faithful in little things, they are not promoted to the charge of greater things. A young man who gets a subordinate situation sometimes thinks it not necessary for him to give it much attention. He will wait till he gets a place of responsibility, and then he will show people what he can do. This is a very great mistake. Whatever his situation may be, he should master it in all its details, and perform all its duties faithfully. The habit of doing his work thoroughly and conscientiously is what is most likely to enable a young man to make his way. With this habit, a person of only ordinary abilities would outstrip one of greater talents who is in the habit of slighting subordinate matters. But, after all, adoption by a young man of this great essential rule of success shows him to be possessed of superior abilities.—Selected.

THE LORD'S OWN TIME.

A PERSON a few years ago attended a meeting, and was asked whether he felt any anxiety for the salvation of his soul? He replied in the affirmative, and remarked that "he always thought that he should be brought into the kingdom." His pastor asked him "When?" He replied that he did not know, but he supposed that it would be "in the Lord's own good time." Some ten years after, his former pastor met him, and inquired, "Is the Lord's own good time for your conversion come yet?" He replied, "No."

This person, still living without hope, and without God in the world, is one of a numerous class who live on contentedly in their sins, under the delusion of honouring sovereign grace.

The inquirer above mentioned was asked by his pastor, "How long it would be before the Lord's own good time would come?" He replied that he could not tell. His pastor told him that there need be no mistake on that subject. "God now commandeth all men everywhere to repent." The present moment is the Lord's own good time. "Behold, now is the accepted time; and now is the day of salvation." The sinner cannot be justified in delaying a single moment in coming to Christ. The Lord's own good time is the present.

READER, how is it with you? God says "to-day." Do you say "to-morrow?" Who knows best—God or you? Salvation is provided Now! Now!! Now!!! To-morrow may be Too late.—Selected.

A FEARFUL DELUSION.

THERE are persons who think that since they have so many trials here, on that ground they will get rest in heaven. Fearful delusion! Unless you have brought your sin to Jesus, and accepted Him as your own personal Saviour, these words are for you, "He that believeth not shall be damned." There is no respect of persons with God. Let God be true.

- The rich man that believeth not shall be damned;
- The poor man that believeth not shall be damned.
- The good man that believeth not shall be damned;
- The bad man that believeth not shall be damned.
- The old man that believeth not shall be damned;
- The young man that believeth not shall be damned.
- The prince that believeth not shall be damned;
- The beggar that believeth not shall be damned.

Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved—born again—made an heir of God, a joint-heir with Christ, and all that He has will be yours. Now is the time to decide; God has shut you in on the spot to accept His gift, or be lost. The blood of Christ will either save you or add to your damnation, will either cleanse you or judge you.—W. P. Mackay.
