

defray expenses. A full attendance of all the societies in the district is requested.

Odds and Ends.

Miss Sawyer, who is poor, was introduced at a lunch party to Miss Taylor, who is rich, and was coldly received. Miss Sawyer is bright and knows her own antecedents, and Miss Taylor's also. She was unabashed, and spoke cheerily: "I'm so glad to meet you. I've often wanted to. It's so funny—my name is Sawyer and my grandfather was a tailor; and your name is Taylor, and your grandfather was a sawyer. Mine used to make clothes for yours, and yours used to saw wood for mine."

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly subdues the pain and disease.

Some mouths look like peaches and cream, and some look like a hole chopped in a brick wall to admit a new door or window. The mouth is a hotbed of toothaches, the bunghole of oratory, and a baby's crowning glory. It is the patriotism's fountain-head and the tool-chest for pie. Without it the politician would be a wanderer on the face of the earth, and the cornetist would go down to an unhonored grave. It is the grocer's friend, the orator's pride, and the dentist's hope.

The superiority of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is shown by its good effects upon the children. Purchase a bottle and give it a trial.

The master was asking questions—masters are kept to ask questions and they sometimes receive curious answers. This question was as follows: "Now, boys, how many months have twenty-eight days?" "All of them, sir," replied a boy in front.

Corns cause intolerable pain. Holloway's Corn Cure removes the trouble. Try it, and see what an amount of pain is saved.

He: "Can you tell me the difference between an Irishman frozen to death and a Highlander on a cold day?" She: "No." He: "Well one's kilt with the cold, and t'other cold with the kilt."

Still Another Triumph—Mr. Thos. S. Bullen, Sunderland, writes: "For fourteen years I was afflicted with Piles; and frequently I was unable to walk or sit, but four years ago I was cured by using Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I have also been subject to Quinsy for over forty years, but Eclectric Oil has cured it, and it was a permanent cure in both cases, as neither the Piles nor the Quinsy has troubled me since."

Mr. Hayseed: (in city hotel) "Waal, I guess you'll have to blow out the gas, Mandy." Mrs. Hayseed: "Why, Josiah?" Mr. Hayseed: "The porter made me promise not to do it."

A Clear, Healthy Skin.—Eruptions of the skin and the blotches which blemish beauty are the result of impure blood caused by the unhealthy action of the Liver and Kidneys. In correcting this unhealthy action and restoring the organs to their normal condition, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will at the same time cleanse the blood, and the blotches and eruptions will disappear without leaving any trace.

Be there a Will, Wisdom Points the Way.—The sick man pines for relief, but he declines sending for the doctor, which means bottles of drugs never consumed. He has not the resolution to load his stomach with compounds that smell villainously and taste worse. But if he have the will to deal himself with his ailment, wisdom will direct his attention to Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, which, as a specific for indigestion and disorders of the digestive organs, have no equal.
