NOTICE!

Our Regina subscribers complain that they did not receive the Northwest Review of March 17. It appears that the Regina Post Office gives very poor satisfaction. Here, too, when we have complaints to make of the non-delivery of papers we certainly mailed, the Post Office officials never succeed in finding the careless or malicious clerks who either neglect or purposely suppress our paper. The only remedy to this evil it is in our power to supply is to mail to our Regina subscribers, as we do this week, copies of the 17th as well as of this issue. Perhaps some of our influential Regina subscribers might, through Lieutenant-Governor Forget, stir up the Postmaster-General to a sense of his duty in this matter.

LYCEUM NOTES

The plans for the spring and summer months are beginning to take definite shape. On Tuesday evening after the mission service an Association Football club was organized, which will enter the League, and for Thursday evening the organization for a League Baseball team was scheduled.

The following Executive was elected for the Lyceum Football club: Honorary President, Dr. Meinder; President, Ralph Patterson; Vice-President, W. Taylor; Secretary-Treasurer, R. P. McLernan; Executive Committee, W. Otterson, P. Nyland, A. Donnelly.

The Football material is very promising. Several of the most ardent promoters have been playing League hockey in the city, while others were associated with some fast teams in the Old Country. As for Baseball, a team of players of League experience either here or in the East can be picked from among the charter members, if the boys can find the time to get into the game.

There was no general meeting on Thursday evening of this week because of the men's mission in progress at St. Mary's church.

The report of the Baseball meeting will be given in these columns next week.

A good story is told of how Andrew Carnegie helped the Methodist church of New Rochelle to get a new pipe organ. Some of the congregation decided on a $1,000 instrument and wrote to Carnegie for a donation. He replied that if the congregation would raise $500 he would see what could be done. This was encouraging, and the flock soon had the money pledged. Then they notified Carnegie, who, meanwhile, had investigated the needs of the congregation. The result was that the deacons received a letter from Carnegie, who said that he had found the congregation was too small for a $1,000 organ, and that one for $500 would answer the purpose very well. As they had collected this amount there was no need of any help from him.

My friend," said the solemn man, "have you ever done ought to make the community in which you live the better for your living in it?"

"I have done much, sir," replied the other humbly, "to purify the homes of my fellow beings."

"Ah," continued the solemn man, with a pleased air, "you distribute tracts?"

"No, I clean carpets."
