

than the seafood professionals that attend Sea Fare International.

Both of these events will be sponsored by Seafood Leader magazine and the California Fisheries and Seafood Institute and will be organized by Sea Fare Expositions, Inc.

There will be a Canadian stand at Sea Fare International 1991. This will include an information booth operated by the federal government (contact Carl Light, address below). In addition, most provincial governments will have booths at the Canadian stand with space available for exhibitors from their province.

FURTHER INFORMATION AND CONTACTS

If you require further information on Sea Fare International 1991, you may wish to contact Sea Fare Expositions, Inc. at the following address:

Sea Fare Expositions, Inc.
454 N. 34th Street
Seattle, Washington 98103
USA
Contact: Ms. Janis Dienes
Telephone: 206-547-6030
Telex: 298 558 SFE UR
Fax: 206-548-9346

A binder containing promotional material obtained from exhibitors at Sea Fare International 1990 is available for viewing in the offices of the Fisheries Division of External Affairs and International Trade Canada.

If you require further information on seafood shows or are interested in the opportunities identified by Canadian missions abroad, your first point of contact is your nearest International Trade Centre, located in major centres across Canada (see Annex 11, at page 60). In addition, you may contact the Fisheries Division, and the geographic trade development divisions of External Affairs and International Trade Canada (Annex 11(a)), or the posts directly for further information. The "Directory of the Canadian Trade Commissioner Service" may be consulted for a list of contact names and addresses.

Fisheries Division (TAF)
External Affairs and International Trade Canada
Contact: Ms. Sandra Harris
Trade Commissioner
Telephone: 613-996-3558
FAX: 613-995-8384