

3. On receipt of such an application for provisional arrest, the Requested State shall take the necessary steps to secure the arrest of the person sought and the Requesting State shall be promptly notified of the result of its application.

4. A person arrested upon such application shall be released from custody upon the expiration of sixty days from the date of that person's arrest if a request for that person's extradition, supported by the documents specified in Article VIII, has not been received.

5. The release of a person pursuant to paragraph 4 of this Article shall not prevent the institution or continuation of proceedings with a view to extraditing the person sought if the request and the supporting documents are received subsequently.

ARTICLE XI

Consent to Extradition

Extradition of a person sought may be granted pursuant to the provisions of this Treaty, notwithstanding that the requirements of Articles VII and VIII have not been complied with, provided that the person sought consents to an order for extradition being made.

ARTICLE XII

Competing Extradition Requests

1. When requests are received from two or more States for the extradition of the same person, the Requested State shall determine to which of those States the person is to be extradited and shall notify the other Contracting State of its decision.
