

Canadian Association of University Teachers of German (CAUTG)

WHAT IS IT?

CAUTG offers a program that enables Canadian students to improve and perfect their knowledge of German while working and travelling in Germany during the summer holidays. Job options include opportunities in the hotel and restaurant industry.

WHO CAN APPLY?

To be eligible students must be:

- 18 to 30 years of age;
- a permanent resident of Canada;
- able to demonstrate a working knowledge of German (at least one year of university German or the equivalent); and
- studying at a post-secondary institution in Canada that has membership in CAUTG.

In addition, applicants must not have participated in this program previously. (Students who have participated as DAAD award recipients in Freiburg are eligible).

HOW DO I APPLY?

Students interested in the program must register before November 30. A non-refundable registration fee must accompany applications.

Transportation from the student's home to Frankfurt, Germany, and back may be subsidized.
